Constitution and Bylaws of the Research Committee on Family Research RC06

These Statutes were first revised in 1993, then in 2003, and most recently in 2010.

I. PURPOSE

A. The purpose of the Committee on Family Research (CFR) of the International Sociological Association (ISA) is to encourage family research of high quality within and between countries.

II. ACTIVITIES

A. To fulfill this purpose the CFR engages in the following activities:

1. It organizes the sessions on family at the meetings of the ISA.
2. It sponsors international seminars (at least one between ISA world congresses) on topics of theoretical, methodological or substantive importance as well as international training seminars to add to the skills of family researchers.
3. It arranges for the publication of matters of importance in the research area of family.
4. It provides an international roster of family sociologists for individuals and organizations seeking consultation or research associates.
5. It seeks to keep its members informed of CFR activities.
6. It engages in additional activities approved by the Executive officers with the consent of the membership.
7. It provides a newsletter to the membership at least twice annually.

III. MEMBERSHIP

A. A distinction is made between two types of individual membership:

- 1) 'Regular members in good standing', defined as financial members of both the relevant Research Committee and the ISA
- 2) 'Affiliated members', defined as financial members of the relevant Research Committee only.

B. Regular, affiliated or student membership of the committee is open to all members of national sociological societies, members of research institutes affiliated with the ISA, research oriented members of national and international family organizations, as well as non-affiliated individual scholars who have demonstrated interest in the area through teaching or research activities.

C. The individual becomes a member upon payment of dues. Non-payment of dues will lead to loss of membership six months after the final period paid for.

D. Dues are payable to the CFR secretariat; the amount is decided at the business meeting for the coming four year period for regular as well as for student membership.

E. (1) Voting in the committee's elections and affairs and (2) membership of its Board, throughout the four years of the Board's mandate, is restricted to the committee's regular members in good standing.

IV. OFFICERS

A. There will be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary/Treasurer, and three officers at-large.

B. They will be elected from and by the membership and will constitute the executive Board of CFR.

V. REVISION OF THE CONSTITUTION

A. Upon written petition of 20 members to the President, an article or articles of this Constitution can be submitted to the membership for revision.

B. Revision requires majority approval of those casting a vote on a mail ballot.
