

XIX ISA World Congress of Sociology
Toronto, Canada
July 15-21, 2018

Theme: Power, Violence and Justice: Reflections, Responses and Responsibilities

Guidelines for applying for integrative sessions by Research Committees and National Associations

Integrative Sessions connect around a debate on a common theme:

- at least three Research Committees, Working Groups, Thematic Groups
- at least three National Associations (ISA collective members)
- or a combination of any three units

Proposals for integrative sessions should indicate

- the name of each of the participating units
- the name and e-mail of the contact person from each unit
- the name and e-mail of the proposal coordinator

It should also provide, in 300 words, maximum, a description of:

- the problematic which will be addressed
- how the participating units will contribute to an integrative reflection about the topic
- the names of the proposed speakers and their themes

No more than two submissions should be made by the same RC/WG/TG or Association. RC/WG/TG participation in an integrative session is in addition to the regular sessions' allocation.

Integrative Sessions will be held at 12:30-14:00 during 5 days, Monday through Friday, July 16-20, 2018.

The deadline for submitting proposals is January 15, 2017.

Proposals must be submitted to the ISA Secretariat isa@isa-sociology.org with copies to Vice-President for National Associations, Sari Hanafi sh41@aub.edu.lb and Vice-President for Research, Markus Schulz markus.s.schulz@gmail.com

The selection of a maximum of 10 proposals will be done in mid-February 2017 by a sub-committee composed of the four members of the Executive Committee who sit on the Research Coordinating Committee as well as on the National Associations Liaison Committee, plus the Vice President, National Associations and the Vice President, Research.