FORTHCOMING CONFERENCES

The ISSA conference in 2010 will take place as part of the International Sociological Association (ISA) World Congress of Sociology in Gothenburg, Sweden, July 11-17th 2010.

Please note that you must be a member of ISSA, and ISA (including RC27), in order to present at the conference. ISA/RC27 membership is for four years, and details may be found at www.isa-sociology.org.

Information about the ISA World Congress and the RC27 sessions

There will be 12 RC27 sessions at the World Congress. You will now have been advised if your paper has been accepted onto the programme. We provide an overview of the sessions and provisional timetable below, the official programme will be confirmed by ISA on their website.

Registration and Abstract Deadlines - 4th May

Please note that May 4, 2010 is the deadline for:

1. Registration for programme participants (presenters, chairs, discussants, etc.). If not registered their names will not appear in the Programme book nor in the Abstract book. Please use the following link for registration.

http://www.isasociology.org/congress2010/congress\_registration.htm

2. On-line submission of abstracts for accepted papers must be through the Cambridge Sociological Abstracts website, which is accessed via the ISA Congress website. Please make sure that the names of authors and title of your abstract are the same as those you originally submitted, as the abstracts will be linked to the relevant sessions via author names and the paper title. Nb.: only registered delegates will be able to submit an abstract, so they must register for the conference first. Click here for the abstract submission.

<http://editweb101v.csa.com/socioabs/submit.php>

Audio Visual Information

PowerPoint projection will be available in all session halls. Computers [PC] will be provided onsite and all presentations should be brought on a USBstick. Internet access is not available.

Formal Invitation Letters

If you would like a formal acceptance letter indicating that your paper has been accepted by an RC27 session at the ISA World Congress, please contact Fabien Ohl (fabien.ohl@unil.ch) and he will email (or post) you a formal letter of acceptance.

Oral and Distributed Papers

There are six oral presentations in each session, which will be designated 15 minutes each. If you are presenting a Distributed Paper, you should send your paper to the ISSA General Secretary (e.pike@chi.ac.uk) by July 1st 2010 and these will be uploaded to the ISSA website in advance of the conference. You are welcome to bring copies of your paper to distribute at the session, and may also be given an opportunity by the Session Organiser to say a few words about your paper if there is time at the end of the session. If the author of an Oral Paper is unable to attend the ISA World Congress, the Session Organiser will contact presenters of a Distributed Paper to ask if they would like their paper changed to an Oral Paper.

Withdrawn Papers

If you find you are unable to attend the ISA World Congress, please contact your Session Organiser, to let us know you cannot attend, so that we can ensure that the RC27 programme is correct.

Copenhagen Summer School 2010

Sport and physical activities – ideologies, practices and realities. Historical, Sociological, Psychological and Pedagogical Approaches

Date

August 22-27, 2010

Place

Department of Exercise and Sport Sciences, University of Copenhagen, Denmark

Organisation

In keynote lectures the experts will address important questions, new approaches and results, problems and strategies of research, current trends and major issues in the area of sport ideologies, practices and realities. The students will have the opportunity of asking questions and discussing with the experts. In addition, there will be workshops and panel discussions. All students will have the opportunity to present their own projects. Papers with the main outlines of these projects must be submitted before the Summer School begins. There will be a discussion of each research project in working groups with other students and with experts. In addition, the experts are available for individual supervision.

Experts

Scholars of the Department of Exercise and Sport Sciences

Guest lecturers (to be confirmed)

Pirkko Markula, Canada, University of Alberta

Elizabeth Pike, UK, University of Chichester

Gerald Gems, U.S., North Central College

Annette Hofmann, Germany, University of Ludwigsburg

Sigmund Loland, Norway, head of the Norwegian Sport University

Selection of the students

Participants should be young researchers (either planning a PhD, working on their PhD or post docs). The participants may work in different disciplines of human and social sciences such as sociology, pedagogy, history and psychology.

Participants will be selected according to the following criteria: relevance of the topic and quality of the project. The number of students will be between 20 and 25; it is aimed to include participants from as many countries as possible.

The participation in the Summer School is free.

We have applied for funding and may be able to provide free lunches.

Travel and accommodation has to be covered by the participants.

There is the opportunity to sleep in a youth hostel in the centre of Copenhagen.

Call for applications

Please send a CV and the application form to Marie Overbye: phdsummerschool@ifi.ku.dk

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS
THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIOLOGY OF SPORT ASSOCIATION'S HONORARY MEMBER AWARD

The Executive Board invites nominations for an Honorary Member award in the International Sociology of Sport Association. This award honors outstanding contributions to the International Sociology of Sport Association and to the sociological study of sport. The recipient of this award must meet both of the following criteria: a) a long career of service to the International Sociology of Sport Association, and b) a distinguished international academic career as a sociologist of sport. Individuals who are retired from formal academic positions are eligible for Honorary Member awards. In addition, the International Sociology of Sport Association will consider retrospectively honoring an individual's service and scholarship with a ceremonial posthumous Honorary Member award.

Honorary Members in the International Sociology of Sport Association receive:

- Full, lifetime membership in the International Sociology of Sport Association, including subscription to the International Review for the Sociology of Sport;
- Free, lifetime registration to the International Sociology of Sport Association's annual conference.

The list of current Honorary Members can be found at www.issa.otago.ac.nz/ISSA\_Board.html

Nominations:

Nominators should submit a 1 to 2-page document (letter) that describes in as much detail as possible how the nominee meets the International Sociology of Sport's Honorary Member criteria. Submit nominations by email or post to:

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Head of Department - Sport Development and Management

Salary Grade 13

Salary range: £45,155 to £52,346 per annum

---

The University has a long standing reputation for excellence in sport. We are looking for an exceptional person to provide inspirational leadership and develop the vision for the department in line with the central role of sport in the University's strategy. Ideally, you will be working in a similar role in higher education or could be a senior manager in the public or private sector in sport and fitness management, with a strong academic background and research profile. It would be advantageous if you had extensive practitioner experience in sport and fitness with a strong grasp of the relevant branches of management.

You will manage a team of 8 academic staff, ensuring that the curriculum on the BA programmes in Sport and Fitness Management, Sport Development and the FdSc programme in Community Sport Coaching is contemporary and reflects the internationalisation strategy of the University.

You will enable the team to develop high quality research outputs in the sociology and management of sport and generate consultancy relevant to sport and fitness industry requirements, which embrace employer engagement, CPD and income generating activities. The successful candidate will be able to develop links with key professional bodies, particularly with a view to enhancing the vocational relevance of course delivery. You will be an excellent teacher and active researcher, able to contribute to the curriculum in the area of sport management.

You will be joining a vibrant, modern University with an excellent reputation for student satisfaction.

Informal enquiries are welcomed by Gill Butler at +44 1243 816288 or G.Butler@chi.ac.uk

Further details and an application form may be found at:
<http://www.chi.ac.uk/jobs/jobdetails.cfm?jobId=853>

Closing date: 17 May 2010

Interviews will be held in the w/c 24 May 2010

PhD OPPORTUNITIES

Bursaried Research Studentship: The Brighton Declaration and its Legacy

The University of Chichester is offering a research studentship for the above project with a bursary of a tax-free stipend of £12,000 per year for 3 years and a full-time home-fees waiver. All research students have access to the University's research training programme, will undertake teaching and/or related duties and will be supported in their studies by a supervisory team.

Full details of this studentship and an application form may be found at <http://www.chiuni.ac.uk/jobs/jobdetails.cfm?jobId=852>. Informal enquiries should be addressed to Dr Elizabeth Pike (Deputy Head, Sport Development and Management, University of Chichester, tel: 01243 816356, email: e.pike@chi.ac.uk).

The Application Process

Applicants should hold a minimum of a good upper second class honours degree or higher in a relevant subject area. The preference is for students to undertake full-time research starting in the academic year 2010/2011. Part-time research is possible and will be considered on a case by case basis. The studentship is normally 3 years for a Doctorate, subject to satisfactory annual review.

Non UK/EU students are eligible to apply however the usual processes for applying to study in the UK will be required (please see international student pages: <http://www.chiuni.ac.uk/international/index.cfm>). Students will also be expected to pay the difference between Home fees and Overseas Fees.

Students accepting a full bursary will undertake teaching duties up to a maximum of 6 hours per week.

Each applicant will apply through the Research Studentship Application form online, or hard copy of the online form. In addition to asking for personal details, education history, and references, the application requests detailed information about the research proposal.

For an application form please visit our website (<http://www.chiuni.ac.uk/jobs/vacancies.cfm>) or call 01243 816116 (24-hour answerphone) or email: hr@chi.ac.uk.

The deadline for Applications is: Friday 21 May 2010 (noon)
Successful applicants will be shortlisted and advised of interview dates.
