BIENVENUE AU XIIIème CONGRES MONDIAL DE SOCIOLOGIE

Professeur T.K. Oommen
Président
Association Internationale de Sociologie

Chers amis, collègues et délégués,

Je considère comme un privilège de vous souhaiter la bienvenue au XIIIe Congrès Mondial de Sociologie de l'Association Internationale de Sociologie.

C'est en 1982, à Mexico, que le Congrès mondial s'est tenu pour la première fois en Amérique Latine ; et c'est en 1986 à New Delhi qu'il s'est tenu pour la première fois en Asie. Ces deux congrès ont été considérés à juste titre comme des étapes importantes vers l'internationalisation de la sociologie, but explicite de l'AIS. Aujourd'hui, le Congrès Mondial se tient pour la deuxième fois de suite en Europe occidentale ; il est donc nécessaire et utile d'en resituer le contexte.

Si l'Europe occidentale est le berceau de l'Etat-nation, ç'en est aussi le cimetière. La croissance de la sociologie comme discipline autonome est allée de pair avec l'émergence de l'Etat-nation. Quelles que fussent leurs orientations théoriques ou idéologiques, les sociologues prirent l'Etat-nation comme l'unité naturelle de leurs analyses.

Aujourd'hui cependant, avec l'éclipse attendue de l'Etat-nation, la civilisation apparaît comme un rival puissant de l'Etat-nation. Certains proposent même la "société mondiale" comme cadre d'analyse légitime de la pensée sociologique.

Notre discipline peut-elle se maintenir malgré le changement de frontières de ses unités d'analyse ? Ou bien allons-nous vers la "fin de la sociologie", comme cela a été dit ? Le déclin de l'Etat-nation signifie-t-il que nous devrions chercher à construire la civilisation comme identité collective ? Dans quelle mesure peut-on réconcilier l'unité de la civilisation et la diversité des nations ? Comment peut-on articuler les spécificités civilisationnelles au sein d'une société mondiale ? Quels sont les mécanismes qui contribuent à un équilibre entre l'Etat, le marché, la société civile et l'environnement ? Telles sont les questions que nous devons affronter aujourd'hui.

Chers collègues, ces questions passionnantes sont les questions de notre temps ; et nous nous réunissons précisément là où elles se posent concrètement, à savoir sur le territoire de l'Union Européenne. C'est pourquoi je me réjouis de vous inviter à participer à cet événement intellectuel.

L'organisation d'un tel Congrès est une tâche réellement collective. Je tiens à remercier ici tous ceux et celles qui y ont contribué par leurs activités au sein du Comité Exécutif de l'A.I.S., du Comité du Programme, des Séances Plénières et des Symposia, des Comités de Recherche, Groupes de Travail, Groupes Thématiques , Sessions Ad Hoc et Sessions Spéciales, du Comité d'organisation et des jurys du Concours Mondial pour Jeunes Sociologues, des secrétariats de l'A.I.S. à Madrid et à Paris. C'est aussi grâce à la collaboration des sociologues allemands représentés par la Deutsche Gesellschaft für Soziologie que ce Congrès peut se tenir ici. Mais c'est tout particulièrement l'équipe des sociologues de Bielefeld regroupés au sein du Gesellschaft für Internazionale Soziologie (G.I.S.) qui a pris sur elle avec ardeur et dévouement les tâches pratiques d'organisation du Congrès. C'est un grand plaisir de vous remercier tous au nom de l'A.I.S.

WELCOME TO THE XIIIth WORLD CONGRESS OF SOCIOLOGY

Professor T.K. Oommen
President
International Sociological Association

Dear Friends, Colleagues and Delegates,

I deem it a privilege to welcome you all to the XIIIth World Congress of Sociology of the International Sociological Association (ISA).

The Xth World Congress met in Mexico in 1982 for the first time in Latin America, and the XIth Congress in 1986 in India, for the first time in Asia. These Congresses were rightly hailed as milestones in pursuing the avowed objective of ISA, namely internationalisation of Sociology. We are meeting for the second time in succession in Western Europe and it is necessary and useful to situate the XIIIth Congress contextually.

If Western Europe is the cradle of the nation-state, it is also its graveyard. The birth of sociology as a distinct discipline was inextricably bound with the rise of the nation-state. Understandably, sociologists of all hues and ideological persuasions accepted nation-state as the natural unit of their analyses, to start with. Latterly, with the presumed eclipse of the nation-state, civilization has become a close contender as the unit of analysis. Still others have postulated world-society as the legitimate concern of sociology.

Is it possible to sustain our discipline in spite of the change in the boundaries of its unit of analyses ? Or is it the very End of Sociology, to invoke a current coinage ? Is it that with the demise of nation-state we should shift our agenda towards the refurbishing and constructing of civilization as a collective identity ? How far the unity of civilization and diversity of nations can be reconciled ? How does one accommodate civilizational specificities within a world society ? What are the mechanisms involved in working out an equi-poise between the state, market, civil society and environment ? These are the kinds of questions we are called upon to pose and ponder over.

Colleagues, these exciting questions are the very pulse of our times and we are meeting where the action is, in the territory of the European Union. I am, therefore, extremely happy to welcome you to this stimulating intellectual event.

Organising a Congress of this magnitude is a truly collective endeavour. I must mention with appreciation the hard work put in by ISA's Executive Committee, the Programme Committee, the organisers and papers writers of Plenary and Symposia sessions, Research Committees, Working Groups, Thematic, Ad-hoc and Special Sessions ; the Organising Committee and the Juries of the World-Wide Competition for Young Sociologists, and the ISA Secretariats in Madrid and Paris. It is the goodwill and cooperation of the community of sociologists in Germany, represented by and through the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Soziologie (DGS), which made the holding of this Congress in Germany possible. But it is the team of sociologists located in Bielefeld and associated with the Gesellschaft für Internazionale Soziologie (GIS) which took on board the organisational task with devotion and commitment. It gives me great pleasure to thank you all on behalf of the ISA.

BIENVENUE A L'UNIVERSITE DE BIELEFELD

Peter Weingart
Président
Gesellschaft für Internationale Soziologie (GIS)

C'est au nom de mes collègues et en tant que Président du GIS, le comité d'organisation local du XIIIème Congrès de sociologie, que j'ai le plaisir de vous souhaiter la bienvenue à Bielefeld et son Université.

Lorsque nous nous sommes portés candidats à l'organisation de ce congrès, même certains de nos amis en Allemagne ont réagi avec scepticisme, se demandant si une manifestation de cette importance pouvait se dérouler dans une ville relativement petite. Bielefeld était probablement inconnue de nombreuses personnes à l'étranger, et certainement moins attrayante que des concurrentes telles que Amsterdam, Prague ou Belgrade, ou que Madrid, New Delhi et Mexico, qui avaient accueilli les précédents Congrès mondiaux de Sociologie. Mais nous pensions avoir d'autres atouts : le plus grand département de sociologie en Allemagne, dont il vous appartient d'apprécier la réputation ; des bâtiments universitaires adaptés à l'accueil des nombreux comités de recherche ; et une ville qui compense son caractère provincial par sa gentillesse, des environs agréables et une situation au centre du pays. Ce que nous pouvions promettre c'était un "Congrès de travail" qui resterait dans les mémoires pour son atmosphère sérieuse, la qualité et l'ouverture de ses échanges intellectuels ou informels.

Nous espérons vivement que lorsque vous reprendrez le chemin du retour, un chemin passant peut-être par d'autres lieux de ce pays, cette promesse se sera réalisée. Si c'est le cas, nous aurons ensemble démontré que le thème du Congrès contenait une note d'optimisme : puisque dans ce monde de "contestations des frontières , déplacement des solidarités" et de regrettable violence, il y a encore place pour la solidarité et l'amitié entre des chercheurs du monde entier qu'unit un même effort intellectuel.

WELCOME TO THE UNIVERSITY OF BIELEFELD

Peter Weingart
Head, Gesellschaft für Internationale Soziologie (GIS)

On behalf of my colleagues and as President of GIS, the local organization committee for the XIIIth World Congress of Sociology, I have the pleasure to welcome the participants to Bielefeld and its university.

When we put in our bid to the ISA to be hosts of the Congress, even some of our own friends from within Germany reacted with a mixture of disbelief and scepticism if such a big event should and could be staged in a comparatively small city. Bielefeld is probably unknown to many foreigners, certainly less exciting than such veritable contenders like Amsterdam, Prague or Belgrad and than previous conference sites of the order of Madrid, New Delhi, and Mexico City. But we thought that we had a number of features going for us nonetheless : Germany's largest department of sociology, whose reputation is yours to judge ; a university building well suited as a conference venue for the many research committees ; and a city which makes up for what it lacks in metropolitan character by its friendliness, its pretty environment and central location with respect to the rest of the country. What we could promise is a "working congress", a scholarly event which you would remember for its atmosphere of intellectual and informal exchange and openness.

It is our sincere hope that by the time you make your way home or to other places in the country you will find this promise realized. Should this be the case we, the GIS, and you, the congress participants, will have demonstrated that the theme of the Congress rings an optimistic note, in that this world of "contested boundaries and shifting solidarities" and unfortunate violence still has a place for the solidarity and friendship embracing scholars from all parts of the world united in intellectual endeavour.

DISCOURS DE BIENVENUE

Professeur Neil Smelser
Université de Californie, Berkeley
Président du Comité du Programme

Chers Collègues,

Au nom du Comité du Programme, bienvenue à tous les sociologues qui, venus de toutes les parties du monde, se réunissent à Bielefeld pour ce XIIIe Congrès Mondial de Sociologie.

Au cours du demi-siècle d'existence de l'Association Internationale de Sociologie, ses membres et affiliés se sont retrouvés tous les quatre ans pour réaffirmer leur engagement intellectuel envers la sociologie, pour s'instruire mutuellement, pour évaluer l'état du monde social dans toutes ses dimensions, et pour faire le point sur le statut de notre discipline

A l'occasion de chaque Congrès Mondial, le Comité du Programme choisit et développe un thème jugé central pour la sociologie mondiale. Pour ce Congrès nous avons choisi, après une longue délibération, un titre tout à fait approprié à notre temps : Contestation des frontières et déplacement des solidarités.

Ce titre fait sens dans quatre contextes différents :

. Les frontières nationales et les solidarités. De façon très largement imprévue, l'Etat-nation, qui semblait une composante incontournable de l'histoire contemporaine, est en train de passer du statut de réalité à celui de problème. Ses frontières sont devenues plus floues et plus perméables ; les flux de marchandises, de personnes et de symboles circulent plus librement autour de la planète, et de nombreux groupes non-nationaux sont apparus qui font concurrence aux Etats pour capter la loyauté des citoyens.

. Les frontières et les solidarités de groupes. Les bases de l'identification culturelle, les anciennes comme les nouvelles, se chargent d'un poids sociopolitique variable au sein des nations et entre elles, et ceci s'accompagne d'une mise en flux des frontières entre groupes : tantôt elles s'affaiblissent et tantôt se renforcent, se donnent tantôt comme amicales et tantôt comme hostiles, ici calmes et là explosives.

. Les frontières de notre discipline. La sociologie elle-même est en flux ; à travers ses frontières s'importent ou s'exportent des cadres conceptuels et cognitifs ; des défis à ses paradigmes apparaissent en son sein, alors même qu'elle poursuit sa spécialisation. Des frontières conceptuelles qui nous paraissaient évidentes et familières se délitent sous nos yeux - ainsi celle entre nature et société - et d'autres émergent où on ne les attendait pas.

. Enfin, les frontières de notre propre association internationale. Au cours des années optimistes qui ont suivi la Seconde Guerre Mondiale, l'A.I.S. a connu un bref moment d'espérance d' un "internationalisme sans frontières" ; puis est venue une longue période de conflits : la guerre froide, au cours de laquelle les mauvaises dynamiques de la politique mondiale se reflétaient au sein de l'A.I.S.. La période contemporaine se caractérise au contraire par une fluidité et un déplacement de toutes les frontières, qu'elles soient nationales, subnationales, de groupe ou entre disciplines.

Ce sont tous ces contextes en flux qu'il faut analyser et comprendre ; et en tant que sociologue, nous sommes particulièrement bien placés pour montrer la voie. Le Comité du Programme espère donc que le thème qu'il a choisi stimulera les réflexions ; que les sociologues qui participeront à ce Congrès en retireront le désir renouvelé de comprendre et d'expliquer notre monde contemporain, ainsi que de nouveaux outils intellectuels pour y parvenir. Bienvenue à tous !

WELCOMING ADDRESS

Professor Neil Smelser
University of California, Berkeley
Chair, Program Committee

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Program Committee, I extend the warmest welcome to sociologists who have assembled in Bielefeld from all corners of the world for the XIII th World Congress of Sociology.

In the half-century of the International Sociological Association's existence, its members and associates have gathered every four years to reaffirm their intellectual commitment to sociology, to educate one another, to assess the status of the social world around us in all its dimensions, and to reflect on the status of our disciplinary enterprise.

For each Congress the Program Committee develops a theme deemed to be most important for world sociology. This year, after long deliberation, we chose a title most appropriate to our times : Contested Boundaries and Shifting Solidarities. It is an apt title in four contexts :

. National boundaries and solidarities. In many unanticipated ways the nation-state, seemingly a bedrock formation in modern history, has become a problem rather than a reality. Its boundaries have become both more diffuse and more permeable, as commodities, people, and symbols move more freely throughout the world, and as numerous non-national groups have appeared as competitors for the loyalty of nations' citizens.

. Group boundaries and solidarities. As both old and new bases of cultural identification change in socio-political importance within and among nations, the boundaries among such groups also give evidence of flux - alternatively weakening and strengthening, alternatively friendly and unfriendly, alternatively calm and explosive.

. The boundaries of our discipline. Sociology itself continues in flux, with importation and exportation of conceptual frameworks and knowledge across its external boundaries, with new paradigmatic challenges from within, with increased specialization of knowledge. Familiar and fixed conceptual boundaries - for example, between society and nature - melt before our eyes, and new ones appear.

. The boundaries within our international association. The history of the I.S.A. has witnessed a brief era of hope for international "boundary-less-ness" in the optimistic years immediately following World War II ; a long period of cold-war conflict, in which the I.S.A. mirrored the unhappy dynamics of world politics ; and a contemporary period of fluidity and shifting boundaries along national, regional, group, and intra-disciplinary lines.

All these contexts demand our understanding, and, as sociologists, we are uniquely poised to take the lead in that understanding. The Program Committee hopes that its theme is provocative, and that sociologists will emerge from this World Congress with a renewed resolve and with new intellectual bases for understanding and explaining our contemporary world. Greetings !

Room allocation

Every group (i.e. every Symposium, RC, WG, TG, AH, or SSO) has been given a specific room, which is indicated only once within the title frame of its academic sessions program. It means that all its sessions will take place in that room unless otherwise indicated right after the session number (this is the case e.g. for joint sessions between two Research Committees, if and only if a given RC has to move to the other RC's room)

Room numbers read as follows :

- H indicates an auditorium ; auditoria are all on ground floor.
- C0 116 (for example) reads : room located in wing C of the main building ; 0 stands for the ground floor ; 116 is the room number
- thus U2-217 reads : room 217 located in wing U on the 2nd floor.

The table of Contents is located at the end of the volume, right after the Index of names.

ROUNDTABLE : PLANNING FOR FUTURE INTERNATIONAL URBAN RESEARCH, BUILDING ON PAST SURVEYS OF THE FISCAL AUSTERITY AND URBAN INNOVATION PROJECT

TABLE RONDE : THEMES ET METHODES POUR DES RECHERCHES INTERNATIONALES SUR LA VILLE

MESA REDONDA : TEMAS Y MÉTODOS PARA LAS INVESTIGACIONES INTERNACIONALES SOBRE LA CIUDAD

This Roundtable session will provide a forum for active urban researchers to review major national urban studies in progress. Several national teams have been adding items and repeating versions of past surveys that provide pretests for larger-scale international collaboration. We can alert one another to major future data collection efforts; air recommendations of items from past urban surveys (especially of the Fiscal Austerity and Urban Innovation Project and Local Democracy and Innovation Project in Eastern Europe) that deserve repetition due to interesting results, especially striking cross-national differences that have emerged; offer and solicit suggestions for new items that have been illuminating in other urban studies. *Tentative Participants :

FEMINIST VISIONS OF AN ALTERNATIVE AND SUSTAINABLE FUTURE

In the past few years global changes and significant events have affected women in notable and diverse ways. Old perspectives and methods of understanding the world are inadequate and have proven to be profoundly shaped by a colonial and patriarchal heritage. We know that the world cannot continue with its present exploitative patterns of development and social relations, and as feminist sociologists we must work to comprehend contemporary social forces. We strive to generate new comparative understandings of contemporary global changes, learn from struggles of women around the world and cultivate feminist visions of alternatives and a sustainable future. We hope that these sessions - grouped to focus on (A) the existing situation (Sessions 1-6), (B) women's struggles (Sessions 7-12), and (C) feminist visions (Sessions 13-18) - will cultivate new ideas and comparative research, reflecting the world's diversity.

RC 36 Sessions 11 and 12

Friday, 22 July 1994 -14:00-16:00 - 16:30-18:30

FORUM DISCUSSION

Chair :

Felix Geyer (SISWO, Plantage Muidergracht 4, 1018 TV Amsterdam, The Netherlands)
Please Note :
In principle, all session coordinators will take part in the forum, and will select beforehand a few of the main issues and problems that have been discussed during our sessions. Moreover, additional suggestions, preferably in writing, are welcome; they should have reached Felix Geyer by late Thursday.
During the first two-hour time slot, these problems and issues will then be discussed among the forum members after the presentation of an invited paper :
Irving Louis Horowitz (Dept. Sociology, Rutgers Univ. New Brunswick, NJ 08903, USA) : The strange career of alienation, or how a concept is transformed without permission of its founders.
The second two-hour time slot will be devoted to a discussion between the forum members and the audience.

METAMORPHOSES DES SOCIETES BALKANIQUES RISQUES ET PERSPECTIVES

De nombreux sociologues réunis par l'AISLF en mars 1994 à Sofia, en provenance de pays occidentaux et de l'Europe du Sud-Est, ont confronté leurs analyses sur les transformations en cours dans les "sociétés balkaniques". Quelles en sont les similitudes et les différences ? Quelles perspectives les rapprochent ? Cette table ronde, qui rassemble des sociologues ayant participé à ce colloque, est conçue comme son prolongement et son aboutissement.

Co-présidents :

Edouard Tiryakian (Duke Univ., Durham NC, USA, président d'honneur de l'AISLF)

LES DYNAMIQUES PLURICULTURELLES DANS LA SOCIOLOGIE FRANCOPHONE

Depuis la fondation de l'AISLF par H. Janne et G. Gurvitch sur le principe de l'utilisation du français, langue porteuse de traditions majeures pour le développement des sciences sociales, ce réseau international ouvre la perspective d'une reconnaissance de la variété des courants culturels qui en font la richesse. Une enquête lancée par l'AISLF sur la diversité de ses dynamiques intellectuelles, professionnelles et méthodologiques, doit permettre d'expliciter l'effet du croisement des cultures au sein de la sociologie francophone. Des collègues imprégnés de ces croisements culturels témoignent des conséquences qu'ils en tirent pour le développement de la connaissance.

Co-Présidents :

Renaud Sainsaulieu (Président de l'AISLF, Inst. Etudes Politiques, 224 bd Saint-Germain, 75005 Paris, France)

INDEX

How to read the index. The index gives all the sessions to which a given scholar is participating. Thus, for instance :

DOE Jane SY 5-2/RC5-11,9-7,31-2/AH 2-2, 18 p.c.

would read : Jane DOE is participating to session 2 of Symposium 5, to session 11 of RC 5, to session 7 of RC 9 (the item "RC" has not been repeated), to session 2 of RC 31, to session 2 of Ad Hoc 2 and is the program coordinator of Ad Hoc 18.

To find the given sessions in the volume you may refer to the Table of Contents which is located at the end of the volume, after this index.

Abbreviations : PS : Presidential Session ; CS : Closing Session ; RC : Research Committee ; WG : Working Group ; TG : Thematic Group ; AH : Ad Hoc Session ; S.S.O. : Special Sessions for Affiliated Organizations ; pc: Program Coordinator.

N.B. : While the names of most scholars are made up of only two items (first name, family name), some have richer names ; given the information that was sent to us by program coordinators and in the absence of further information (e.g. an abstract) we have had to guess where the scholar's first name ends and his/her last (family) name begins. We apologize for potential errors, resulting in misclassification of the scholar in the index.

Program Announcement

"AUDIO-VISUAL PRODUCTIONS IN SOCIOLOGY"

Coordinated by Leonard Henny

Like in foregoing World Congresses of Sociology in Toronto (1974), Uppsala (1978), Mexico City (1982) and New Delhi (1986) a daily program of Audio-Visual Productions in Sociology will be held at the World Congress in Bielefeld.

The program will be presented in Auditorium H7 for components 1 to 6, and in H4 for evening films

The program consists of seven components:

1. Experiences with Foto, Film and Video in Sociology

Tuesday July 19, 14.00 - 16.00
Wednesday July 20, 14.00 - 16.00 and 16.30 -18.30
Friday July 22, 16.30 - 18.30

A series of presentations by sociologists who use audio-visual media in the exercise of their profession. These sessions will give room for discussions on theoretical and practical issues.
Special attention is given to the applications of interactive video (videodiscs) in teaching and research in the social sciences.

2. Transnational Comparisons in Aging and Dying

Tuesday July 19, 16.30 - 18.30

A series of film- and video presentations on social processes in the realm of aging and dying in different parts of the world.

3. Family Photography

Thursday July 21, 14.00 - 16.00

In the U.N. Year of the family it is appropriate to dedicate attention to the various uses of photo film and video in researching the family. Special attention will be given to the Hungarian school in Sociological Family Photography.

4. The Visualization of Politics

Thursday July 21, 16.30 - 18.30

An outstanding documentary film by Ray Meyer, made for Channel Four about the rise and fall in the carreer of 90 year old filmmaker Lenie Riefenstal, featuring her ascent as Hitlers protegé, her survival of the Neurenberg trial and her recovery as a renowened documentarist, filming the Nuer and, more recently the submarine world with her fourty years younger partner.

5. Visual Anthropology of Western Civilization

Friday July 22, 14.00 - 18.30

"Ethno-cinematography": the ethnologists look at modern Western society.

6. Open Screenings

Every evening Tuesday through Friday 19.00 - 21.00

An opportunity for sociologists to show and discuss their audio-visual programmes at the congress.
Please contact the organisers of the Program on Monday July 18 between 14.00 - 18.30 for registration in Room.....

7. Daily Filmprogram Auditorium H4

A program of documentaries and fiction films which relate to current issues in sociology.

Program details will be made public on posters and flyers at the Congress.

THE HANDBOOK OF ECONOMIC SOCIOLOGY

During recent years social scientists have come to reaffirm that understanding almost any facet of social life requires a simultaneous understanding of how economic institutions work and how they are influenced by values and norms. Sociology, and especially economic sociology, is well equipped to be of assistance in this endeavor. Neil Smelser and Richard Swedberg bring together leading sociologists, economists, and political scientists in The Handbook of Economic Sociology, the first comprehensive view of this vital and growing field.

Here more than forty contributors examine the theoretical and empirical evolution of economic sociology; the social foundations of modern economic organizations; the interaction of economic factors with schools, the family, law, religion, work, and other institutions; and economic systems in historical, cross-cultural, and political perspectives. With the burgeoning of the field in the last decade, a definitive account is long overdue. Original and far-reaching, The Handbook of Economic Sociology provides a state-of-the-art overview that will appeal not only to sociologists and economists, but to all scholars who are interested in the impact of economics on the lives of people and nations.

Neil J. Smelser, formerly University Professor of Sociology at the University of California, Berkeley, is Director of the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences, Stanford. Richard Swedberg is Professor of Sociology at the University of Stockholm, and is the author of Schumpeter: A Biography (Princeton).

236 LE TRAVAIL À SA PLACE
Hiver 1993-94 - 136 pages - 65 F - étr. : 70 F

Le travail n'est pas qu'un gagne-pain : être privé de travail, les chômeurs l'éprouvent douloureusement, c'est être privé aussi de lien social, de valorisation, d'épanouissement personnel. Quand changent les modes d'organisation du travail, quand se réduit le temps qu'il occupe dans la vie de chacun, que deviennent ses dimensions sociales, culturelles, éthiques ? • Avec les contributions de : M.-P. Bailly, F. Beaujolin, B. Bécherel, G. Cottin, C. Dubar, A. Gauvin, D. Guillet, J.-Cl. Moisdon, B. Perret, Y. Schwartz, C. Sounack, A. Supiot, G. de Terssac.

237 L'HUMANITAIRE SANS FRONTIÈRES
Printemps 1994 - 136 pages - 65 F - étr. : 70 F

Bosnie, Somalie... L'humanitaire est vilipendé par les uns, porté aux nues par les autres. Et si l'ambiguïté était au cœur de toute action humanitaire ? Pour trouver le juste rapport entre politique et humanitaire, un effort de lucidité s'impose. L'humanitaire peut beaucoup, mais pas tout et pas n'importe comment. • Avec les contributions de : E. Archambault, P. Barrat, M. Bettati, R. Brauman, A. Destexhe, G. Hermet, B. Holzer, J. Langan, C. Lechervy, M. Nakamura, O. Mongin, D. Vuianovith.

238 INSÉCURITÉ QUESTION DE CONFIANCE
Eté 1994 - 128 pages - 65 F - étr. : 70 F

Rien ne menace davantage la cohésion sociale que la peur mutuelle. Aussi, la croissance du sentiment d'insécurité pose-t-elle à nos sociétés un problème politique grave : le laisser pourrir, c'est alimenter les idéologies populistes sécuritaires. Mais comment l'affronter sans démagogie ni complaisance ? • Avec les contributions de : F.-X. Dumortier, A. Jazouli, C. Journès, D. Lapeyronnie, E. Laurentin, E. Le Roy Ladurie, F. Ocqueteau, S. Roché, L. Wacquant, D. Warfman.

239 FAMILLE ET SOCIÉTÉ (à paraître)
Automne 1994 - 128 pages - 65 F - étr. : 70 F

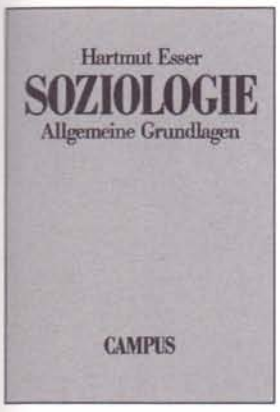

Un regard sur les profonds changements affectant la famille, là où se recoupent la sphère de l'intimité et l'espace social. • Avec les contributions de : J.-H. Déchaux, O. de Dinechin, M. Fize, J. Hui, P. Martinot-Lagarde, L. Mullings, L. Pareydt, L. Roussel, J. Streiff-Fénart, P. Vallin, G. Vaucher.
