Presidenta de la Asociación Internacional de Sociología

Queridos amigos y colegas:

Bienvenidos al XII Congreso Mundial de la Asociación Internacional de Sociología!

El tema de nuestro Congreso, "Sociología para un solo mundo", resulta especialmente apropiado dado que la Asociación Internacional de Sociología (AIS) dedica sus esfuerzos al "avance de los conocimientos sociológicos por todo el mundo". Durante la celebración del Congreso este tema se abordará en debates teóricos e intercambios de investigación. Espero que en todo se ponga de manifiesto y se confirme que la palabra más importante del lema, "Sociología para un solo mundo", es la preposición en la que se resume nuestra vocación.

Durante los últimos cuatro años el Comité Ejecutivo ha intentado internacionalizar esta disciplina en términos prácticos. Algunas de las iniciativas han dado ya fruto, y la que más nos enorgullece es la convocatoria del primer Concurso Mundial para Jóvenes Sociólogos (Worldwide Competition for Young Sociologists), muchos de cuyos finalistas se encuentran hoy entre nosotros.

Otras iniciativas de la AIS están en marcha, con el mismo propósito de conseguir la integración de colegas de todas las partes del planeta. Entre ellas podemos citar la Escuela de Verano y Foro de Investigación de Ljubljana (Ljubljana Summer School and Research Forum), el Instituto Internacional para Sociología del Derecho de Oñati (Oñati International Institut for the Sociology of Law), y el Centro para Documentación, Publicación y Análisis de Bielefeld (Bielefeld Centre for Documentation, Publication and Analyses). Confiamos en que estas iniciativas os atraigan en número cada vez mayor y también en que continuéis tomando parte en los comités de investigación de la Asociación y contribuyendo a nuestro creciente catálogo de publicaciones.

La celebración del Congreso en Europa, después de haber tenido su sede en Nueva Delhi (1986) y Ciudad de Méjico (1982), se da también en un momento muy oportuno. Actualmente se están produciendo cambios radicales en muchas partes del mundo, pero es Europa la que está sufriendo la remodelación más dramática de la que hayamos sido testigos. De ahí que el Congreso sea también una oportunidad para aportar nuestra contribución a la perestroika europea.

Evidentemente, este tipo de Congreso sólo puede hacerse realidad gracias al intenso trabajo de muchas personas. Me gustaría dar las gracias de manera especial a los miembros de los Comités Ejecutivo y de Programación de la AIS así como a los miembros del Comité Español para la Organización del Congreso Mundial de Sociología (CECOMS) por su generosa aportación de tiempo, energías y apoyo. También quiero expresar mi especial agradecimiento a nuestra Secretaria Ejecutiva y a su equipo por haber trabajado infatigablemente para convertir esta ocasión en un éxito.

En nombre de la AIS, doy una calurosa bienvenida a todos los asistentes al Congreso. Confío en que todos encuentren ideas sobre las que profundizar y colegas con quienes colaborar para que podamos seguir sirviendo a la causa "Sociología para un solo mundo" tras la clausura del Congreso.

II XIIth World Congress of Sociology

Margaret Archer

President, International Sociological Association

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Welcome to the 12th World Congress of the International Sociological Association!

Our Congress theme 'Sociology for One World' seems particularly appropriate since the ISA itself is dedicated to 'advancing sociological knowledge throughout the world'. During the Congress we will be addressing the theme in terms of theoretical debates and exchanges of research. In all of this I hope we will recognize and affirm that the most important word in the title 'Sociology for One World' is the preposition - a statement of our vocation.

Over the past four years the Executive Committee has been trying to internationalize the discipline in practical terms. Some initiatives have already born fruit, and one of which we are proudest is to have launched the first Worldwide Competition for Young Sociologists, many of whose finalists are with us today.

Other ISA initiatives, with the same aim of integrating more colleagues from all parts of the globe are already underway. Examples include the Ljubljana Summer School and Research Forum, the Oñati International Institute for the Sociology of Law, and the Bielefeld Centre for Documentation, Publication and Analyses. We hope these will involve more and more of you over the next years and that you will continue to participate in our burgeoning Research Committees and contribute to our growing list of publications.

To hold the Congress in Europe after New Delhi in 1986 and Mexico City in 1982 also has its appropriateness at this time. Radical changes are taking place in many parts of the world, but Europe is being reshaped more dramatically now than in most of our lifetimes. The Congress is therefore an opportunity for us to make our contribution to European perestroika.

Clearly this type of Congress can only take place thanks to the hard work of many people. In particular I would like to thank members of the ISA's Executive and Programme Committees as well as members of the Comité Español para la Organización del Congreso Mundial de Sociología (CECOMS) for giving generously of their time energy and support. Special thanks are due, however, to our Executive Secretary and her team who worked indefatigably to make this occasion a success.

On behalf of the ISA, I warmly welcome all those attending the Congress. I hope everyone will find ideas to pursue and colleagues with whom to collaborate so that we will continue to serve the cause of 'Sociology for One World' when the Congress is over.

Margaret Archer
Présidente, Association Internationale de Sociologie

Chers amis et collègues,

Bienvenue au XII Congrès Mondial de l'Association Internationale de Sociologie!

Le thème de notre Congrès "Sociologie pour un Seul Monde" semble particulièrement approprié, étant donné que l'AIS elle-même s'attache à "faire progresser les connaissances sociologiques dans le monde". Durant le Congrès nous traiterons le thème en termes de débats théoriques et d'échanges de recherches. J'espère que nous ne manquerons pas de reconnaître et d'affirmer que le mot le plus important de ce titre "Sociologie pour un Seul Monde" en est la préposition - affirmation de notre vocation.

Pendant les quatre dernières années, le Comité Exécutif s'est efforcé d'internationaliser la discipline en termes pratiques. Certaines de ces initiatives portent déjà leurs fruits et celle dont nous sommes le plus fiers est le lancement du premier Concours Mondial pour Jeunes Sociologues dont de nombreux finalistes sont avec nous aujourd'hui.

D'autres initiatives de l'AIS qui partagent le même objectif d'intégration de collègues du monde entier, sont en cours. A titre d'exemple, je citerai l'Université d'été et Forum de Recherche de Ljubljana, l'Institut International de Sociologie Juridique d'Oñati, et le Centre de Documentation, Publication et Analyses de Bielefeld. Nous espérons que vous vous impliquerez toujours d'avantage au cours des prochaines années et que vous continuerez à participer à nos nombreux Comités de Recherche ainsi qu'à contribuer à l'allongement de notre liste de publications.

En ce moment il est tout à fait opportun de célébrer le Congrès en Europe, après Nouvelle Delhi en 1986 et Mexico en 1982. Des changements radicaux sont en train de se produire dans de nombreux endroits du monde, mais l'Europe vit la réorganisation la plus dramatique qu'il nous ait été de connaître. Le Congrès est donc l'occasion pour nous de contribuer à la perestroika européenne.

Il est évident que ce genre de Congrès ne peut avoir lieu sans le travail et l'effort de nombreuses personnes. Je voudrais remercier en particulier les Comités Exécutif et de Programme de l'AIS ainsi que les membres du Comité Espagnol pour l'Organisation du Congrès Mondial de Sociologie (CECOMS) pour le temps, le soutien et l'énergie qu'ils ont généreusement dispensé. Nous devons cependant remercier tout spécialement notre Secrétaire Exécutive et son équipe qui ont travaillé infatigablement au succès de cette rencontre.

Au nom de l'AIS, je souhaite un cordiale bienvenue à tous les assistants au Congrès. J'espère que chacun y trouvera des idées à développer et des collègues avec lesquels collaborer pour que nous continuions à travailler dans le sens de la "Sociologie pour un Seul Monde" une fois le Congrès fini.

BIENVENIDOS AL XII CONGRESO MUNDIAL DE SOCIOLOGÍA

Salvador Giner

Presidente de la Federación de Asociaciones de Sociología del Estado Español, (FASEE)

Presidente del Comité Español para la Organización del Congreso Mundial de Sociología, (CECOMS)

La Federación de Asociaciones de Sociología del Estado Español (FASEE) agradece sinceramente a la Asociación Internacional de Sociología (AIS) la decisión de celebrar el XII Congreso Mundial de Sociología en nuestro país. La comunidad sociológica española acoge favorablemente esta oportunidad única de recibir a colegas, intercambiar ideas, establecer contactos personales y compartir sus experiencias de científicos sociales con ellos.

Las ciencias sociales en España, y en particular la Sociología, han experimentado una considerable expansión durante la última década, tanto en el número de personas que se dedican a ella como en la calidad y complejidad de sus contribuciones. El XII Congreso Mundial dará la posibilidad de conocer más a fondo los esfuerzos y logros de nuestra comunidad sociológica a aquellos colegas que no estén demasiado familiarizados con ella. El carácter acogedor y hospitalario del Reino de España y sus gentes favorecerá sin duda alguna la comunicación científica entre todos nosotros.

España, sede del Congreso, es un país europeo que cuenta con una larga historia y, a su vez, con un presente próspero y vigoroso. España es también una encrucijada cultural de primer orden. Por eso confiamos en que el Congreso sirva de plataforma ideal desde la que se proyectan las contribuciones de los colegas de aquellos países con los que mantenemos especiales vínculos de hermandad, sobre todo Portugal y toda Latinoamérica, así como la comunidad hispana de Norteamérica. También esperamos la activa participación de los colegas procedentes de los países mediterráneos.

No solo la localización geopolítica de nuestro país, sino también el propio lema del Congreso, "Sociología para un sólo mundo", deben ser fuente de inspiración para todos cuantos participamos en él.

El CECOMS está constituido por representantes de las diferentes asociaciones de sociología españolas, por lo que todos los sociólogos del país están, de un modo u otro, debidamente representados. El CECOMS desea dar las gracias a las autoridades españolas por haber hecho posible la celebración de este Congreso, también al Comité Ejecutivo y la Presidenta de la AIS, Profesora Margaret Archer, por su apoyo y colaboración. Nuestro más profundo agradecimiento va dirigido a S.M. el Rey, Presidente Honorario del XII Congreso Mundial de Sociología.

En nombre de la Federación de Asociaciones de Sociología del Estado Español y del Comité Español para la Organización del Congreso Mundial de Sociología, deseo extender mi más calurosa bienvenida a todos los delegados asistentes al XII Congreso Mundial. Confío y espero que ésta sea una ocasión grata y memorable para todos.

WELCOME TO THE XIIth WORLD CONGRESS OF SOCIOLOGY

Salvador Giner

President, Spanish Federation of Sociological Associations (FASEE)

Chairman, Spanish National Organising Committee for the World Congress (CECOMS)

The Spanish Federation of Sociological Associations (FASEE) is very grateful to the International Sociological Association (ISA) for its decision to hold its XIIth World Congress in our country. The Spanish sociological community welcomes this unique opportunity to be the host to their colleagues from all over the world and to exchange ideas, personal contacts and share their common experiences as social scientists with them.

Spanish social science, and especially sociology, has grown considerably over the last decade both in the number of its practitioners and the quality and sophistication of its contribution. The XIIth World Congress will allow sociologists who are not yet entirely familiar with the efforts and achievements of our sociological community to know them more intimately. The hospitable and friendly atmosphere of the Kingdom of Spain and its people will no doubt foster scientific communication among all of us.

Spain, the host country, is an ancient and yet thriving and vigorous Western European nation. It is also a cultural crossroads of the first order. It is for this reason that we hope the Congress serves as an ideal platform from which to project the contributions of colleagues from those countries with which we maintain especially fraternal ties, mainly Portugal and all of Latin America, as well as the Hispanic people of North America. We also hope that colleagues from all the Mediterranean countries will take a very active part in the Congress.

Not only the geopolitical location of our country but also the very motto of the Congress, "Sociology for One World", ought to be an inspiration for all Congress participants.

CECOMS is made up of members representing the several sociological associations in Spain so that all sociologists in the country are, in one way or another, duly represented on it. CECOMS wishes to thank the Spanish authorities for having made this Congress possible. It also wishes to thank the Executive Committee and the President of the ISA, Professor Margaret Archer, for all their support and collaboration. Our deepest gratitude, however, goes to H.M. the King as Honorary President of the XIIth World Congress of Sociology.

Speaking on behalf of FASEE and CECOMS I extend my warmest welcome to all delegates to the XIIth World congress. I hope the occasion will be a joyous and memorable one for all.

¡ Bienvenidos a España!

BIENVENUE AU XI CONGRÈS MONDIAL DE SOCIOLOGIE

Salvador Giner

Président de la Fédération Espagnole d'Associations de Sociologie (FASEE)
Président du Comité National Espagnol d'Organisation du Congrès Mondial
(CECOMS)

La Fédération Espagnole d'Associations de Sociologie remercie l'Association Internationale de Sociologie d'avoir choisi notre pays pour la célébration de son XII Congrès Mondial. La communauté espagnole de sociologues se réjouit de cette occasion unique de recevoir ses collègues du monde entier et d'échanger des idées, contacts personnels et partager avec eux leurs expériences communes dans cette branche des sciences humaines.

Les sciences sociales espagnoles, et en particulier la sociologie, se sont considérablement développées durant la décade passée tant par le nombre de professionnels comme par la qualité et le perfectionnement de leurs contributions. Le XII Congrès Mondial permettra aux sociologues que ignorent encore les efforts et les résultats de notre communauté sociologique de les connaître plus à fond. L'hospitalité et l'amabilité espagnole favoriseront sans aucun doute la communication scientifique entre nous.

L'Espagne, votre hôte, est une vieille nation de l'Europe Occidentale mais à la fois dynamique et en expansion. C'est aussi un carrefour de cultures de premier ordre. C'est pour cette raison que nous espérons que ce Congrès sera une plateforme idéale d'où lancer les contributions de collègues de pays avec lesquels nous maintenons des liens spécialement fraternels, le Portugal principalement et tous les pays de l'Amérique latine, ainsi que les communautés hispaniques de l'Amérique du Nord. Nous souhaitons aussi la participation très active de collègues de tous les pays méditerranéens.

Non seulement la situation géopolitique de notre pays mais aussi le thème même du Congrès, "Sociologie pour un Seul Monde", devrait être source d'inspiration pour tous les participants au Congrès.

Le CECOMS est formé de membres représentant les diverses associations de sociologues d'Espagne, de sorte que tous sont dûment représentés, d'une façon ou d'une autre. Le CECOMS tient à remercier les autorités espagnoles qui ont rendu possible ce Congrès. Nous voulons aussi témoigner notre reconnaissance au Comité Exécutif et à la Présidente de l'AIS, Professeur Margaret Archer, pour leur soutien et leur collaboration. Mais notre plus profonde gratitude revient à Sa Majesté le Roi, Président d'Honneur du XII Congrès Mondial de Sociologie.

Au nom de la FASEE et du CECOMS, je souhaite la bienvenue à tous les délégués au XII Congrès Mondial. Que nous puissions tous en garder un souvenir agréable et inoubliable.

Bienvenue en Espagne!

Un sólo Congreso Mundial para un sólo mundo.

Los análisis sociológicos contemporáneos de los asuntos humanos al término del siglo XX se basan en gran medida en la experiencia histórica específica de una sociedad mundial naciente. Los problemas sociales a escala mundial, cada vez más acuciantes, y la conciencia creciente de las importantes interdependencias que existen entre las distintas sociedades, naciones y áreas culturales, requieren que los sociólogos aborden con sensibilidad las nuevas tareas disciplinarias a las que se ven inevitablemente confrontados en la actualidad. Por este motivo, el Comité Ejecutivo de la AIS eligió la frase "Sociología para un sólo mundo - Unidad y diversidad" como lema oficial del XII Congreso Mundial. Su propósito fundamental era proporcionar una idea central que pareciera lo suficientemente amplia como para permitir toda una variedad de enfoques que reflejaran las teorías e investigaciones sociológicas actuales en todo el mundo, y al mismo tiempo lo suficientemente específica como para orientar el debate académico hacia un campo de estudio identificable, que se caracterice tanto por su amplitud tanto como por su diversificación.

Invitamos a sociólogos de todas las escuelas y tradiciones, procedentes de contextos sociales y nacionales diferentes, a veces incluso divergentes, a que participen en los animados debates del Congreso, y a que pongan de manifiesto preocupaciones comunes sobre del "estado de las cosas" en este mundo nuestro, el único que tenemos, y al mismo tiempo sobre el "estado de las ideas", es decir, que traten de resolver si nuestros esfuerzos disciplinarios son los adecuados para hacer frente a las rápidas transformaciones en curso en todo el mundo. No cabe duda de que en un plazo de apenas cuatro años, desde la celebración en Nueva Delhi de nuestro último Congreso Mundial, se ha acelerado vertiginosamente el proceso de transformación a nivel mundial, que afecta a todas y cada una de las sociedades, y que con bastante frecuencia hace que éstas se estremezcan hasta sus cimientos, cuestionando incluso sus existencia; por este motivo, no podemos aplazar por más tiempo la reunión de la comunidad internacional de sociólogos. El ambicioso objetivo de dicha reunión debería ser ante todo fomentar la investigación, con responsabilidad y espíritu de cooperación, sobre los problemas que plantea, sobre la naturaleza y sobre la dinámica de un sólo mundo, un mundo único en proceso de formación.

Hemos de admitir de antemano que el tema general del Congreso puede parecer un tanto programático e incluso ligeramente idealista en exceso. Sin embargo, no pretendemos imponer unas pautas preestablecidas, sino mantener el variado y contrapuesto acerbo de riqueza que constituye nuestro mundo - una entidad en sí, pero con múltiples facetas de diferente colorido. Todos los sociólogos, incluso aquéllos que no rechazan las ideas utópicas, son los suficientemente realistas como para darse cuenta de que ya no existe una sociedad mundial establecida. Sin embargo, ahora más que nunca, es preciso realizar profundo análisis y recurrir a una buena dosis de imaginación sociológica para prever el advenimiento de una nueva era y el nacimiento de una sociedad mundial que supere los límites convencionales, en particular las fronteras entre naciones, y que acelere el desmoronamiento de los muros de marcos sociales hasta ahora cerrados. En vista de los retos a los que se ve sometida un área cada vez mayor de la investigación, no es de sorprender que no podamos esperar hallar una gran teoría que lo abarque todo. Las distintas formas de tratar esta cuestión nos servirán de orientación al tiempo que estimularán la investigación creativa sobre este mundo único en el que vivimos, y sobre las múltiples versiones del mismo, en las que se manifiesta su existencia única. El reto de la complejidad y diversidad del tema que estamos tratando es evidente - y estimulante-cualquiera que sea el planteamiento del investigador: seguir señalando la diversidad e incluso la división de la humanidad e insistiendo en la indigenización, o bien aceptar que se impone una tendencia a la internacionalización e incluso a la universalización; elegir un punto de vista más universalista. Es de esperar que la nueva interpretación cosmopolita de las tendencias fundamentales de nuestro planeta en transformación, hogar común de todos nosotros, nos protegerá del peligro del provincianismo, tan patente en algunas partes del mundo.

En cualquier caso, el programa científico del Congreso ofrece abundante materia de reflexión sobre esta cuestión central y los numerosos temas afines a ella. Está planteado de tal forma que suscitará gran interés internacional, garantizándose la inclusión de todas las aportaciones importantes. De acuerdo con nuestra buena tradición, el programa consta de cuatro partes:

1. Dos plenarios: la Sesión de Apertura (Sesión presidencial) el lunes por la mañana y la Sesión de Clausura el viernes por la tarde; no se planten en absoluto como ceremonias, sino muy al contrario como ocasiones para que eminentes sociólogos puedan dar orientaciones iniciales y realizar una evaluación final, ofreciendo una visión global del tema general del Congreso.
2. Seis simposia, cada uno de los cuales constará de cuatro sesiones, que se celebrarán todas las mañanas del martes a viernes, y en las que se analizarán en profundidad los distintos aspectos y dimensiones del tema del Congreso.
3. Nueve sesiones ordinarias que celebrarán cada uno de los 42 Comités de Investigación y de los 8 Grupos de Trabajo, todas las tardes de la semana del Congreso, además de sesiones conjuntas a última hora de la tarde con otros grupos; el programa de las mismas lo organizarán los propios Comités Permanentes de la AIS en función de sus intereses específicos, pero en muchos casos estará oportuna y claramente relacionado con el tema general del Congreso.
4. Grupos Temáticos, Sesiones Ad Hoc y Sesiones Especiales de otras Asociaciones (SSO), que se celebrarán generalmente a última hora de la tarde, y cuyo objetivo es fomentar la colaboración entre académicos más allá de las actividades de los comités o grupos ya existentes, y en identificar a aquellas organizaciones académicas cuyos intereses coinciden con los de la AIS.

Aquellos participantes al Congreso que acrediten su inscripción en el mismo podrán participar en cualquiera de las sesiones. También invitamos a todos aquellos que, recién incorporados a estas lides o veteranos en ellas, representan el amplio espectro de puntos de vista teóricos y doctrinales y toda la gama de la investigación en el terreno de la sociología, a que participen en un debate universal sobre cuestiones candentes en un mundo que está transformando radicalmente las condiciones de nuestra existencia: de nuestra vida, de nuestro trabajo e incluso de nuestro pensamiento.

Están ustedes ante una apasionante aventura intelectual. Aprovechen la duración de los días españoles y disfruten de esta semana en compañía de sus amigos y colegas.

One World Congress for One World

Sociological analyses of human affairs at the end of the twentieth century are largely grounded in the specific historical experience of an emerging world society. Pressing social problems on a global scale and the growing awareness of significant interdependencies between different societies, nations and cultural areas demand a sensitivity to the way in which sociologists tackle the new disciplinary tasks they now inevitably confront. Therefore the ISA Executive Committee chose as the official theme for the 12th World Congress, Sociology for One World - Unity and Diversity. The overriding idea was to provide a focus for the meeting that seemed general enough to embrace the variety of approaches which represent current sociological theory and research throughout the world. At the same time, the theme is specific enough to guide academic discussion towards an identifiable field of study which is itself characterized by expansion and diversification.

Sociologists of every tradition and perspective coming from different national and social backgrounds are invited to join in lively Congress debates which reflect common concern about the 'state of affairs' in the one and only world we have and simultaneously about the 'state of the art', that is the adequacy of our disciplinary efforts to cope with rapid worldwide transformations. Without a doubt, within the period of only four years since our last World Congress in New Delhi, global change has affected every single society. Often change has shaken them to the point of putting their future existence into question. Globalization has accelerated in a breathtaking way, so that it is high time to call the international community of sociologists together. The ambitious aim of their gathering should be, above all, to foster responsible collaborative investigations on the problems, the nature and the dynamics of one world in the making.

We can readily admit that the general theme of the Congress sounds somewhat programmatic and perhaps even a little too idealistic. However, the focus is not simply upon one agreed world but rather on the rich and contradictory strands making up the 'world' - as a whole and in its multi-faceted aspects. Sociologists, even those who do not reject utopian ideals, are realistic enough not to believe in one already established world society. Therefore in-depth analyses and a shot of sociological imagination are needed - more than ever before to envisage the advent of a new age and the birth of a global society. Such a society would transcend conventional boundaries, especially those between nation states, and eventually break down walls between closed social setting. Not surprisingly, in the light of such enormous challenges to a growing area of inquiry, we cannot expect there to be an all-embracing grand theory which commands consensus. Instead, the contrasting ways in which the theme will be treated will give us ideas and stimulate creative research about the one world in which we live and the many forms through which its unique existence is experienced. Whether one prefers to continue emphasizing diversity by pointing to the enduring division of mankind and stressing indigenization or whether one tends to accentuate internationalization, seeing globalization as becoming the predominant trend, whether a more universalist viewpoint is taken or whether pluralist conceptions are regarded as more appropriate, the challenge of the complexity and diverse manifestations of the subject under consideration is evident - and provoking. It is hoped that a new cosmopolitan understanding of the fundamental movements taking place on our moving planet, which is the common home for all of us, will eliminate the danger of parochialism which is also obvious in some parts of the world.

XIV XIIth World Congress of Sociology

The scientific programme of the congress provides plenty of food for thought on the central topic and many related issues. It provides the opportunity for the expression of a wide range of international interests and a chance for every relevant contribution to receive attention. Following our tradition, the programme consists of four parts:

1. Two Plenaries; The Presidential Session at the beginning, on Monday morning, and the Closing Plenary Session at the end, on Friday afternoon. Far from being ceremonies, both Sessions on the contrary offer opening addresses and final evaluative commentaries by eminent sociologists who will deal with the overall Congress theme in comprehensive terms.
2. Six symposia, each with four sessions, running every morning from Tuesday to Friday, in order to examine in depth various aspects and dimensions of the Congress theme.
3. Nine regular sessions of each of the 42 Research Committees and of the 8 Working Groups, to be held in the afternoons of the Congress week, plus joint sessions with other established groups in the evenings. Here the programme is organized by these Standing Committees of the ISA on their own initiative and according to their specialized interests. Fortunately, in many cases these sessions have been put together with clear reference to the general theme of the Congress.
4. The Thematic Groups, Ad Hoc Sessions and Special Sessions by other Associations (SSO), usually occupy the evenings. These sessions have been initiated to promote collaboration between scholars whose interests lie beyond the activities of the well-established groups or Research Committees. Furthermore some of these have been organized with scholarly associations whose interests intersect with those of the ISA.

Attendance at all sessions is open to every registered Congress participant. Old friends of the ISA and newcomers from all around the world, who together represent the wide range of theoretical viewpoints and the variety of sociological research going on in so many fields, are equally invited to join in the international debate about a world which is fundamentally transforming the conditions of our existence - of our lives, of our work, and even those of our thinking.

An intellectual adventure of great appeal awaits you. Take advantage of the long Spanish day and enjoy the week among your friends and colleagues.

Un Seul Congrès pur un Seul Monde.

Les analyses sociologiques contemporaines des affaires humaines de cette fin de vingtième siècle sont amplement fondées sur l'expérience spécifique et historique de l'émergence d'une société mondiale. La pression de problèmes sociaux à grande échelle et la prise de conscience croissante des importantes interdépendances entre les différentes sociétés, nations et aires culturelles exigent que les sociologues abordent avec sensibilité les nouvelles tâches de leur discipline auxquelles ils sont inévitablement confrontés aujourd'hui. C'est pourquoi le Comité Exécutif de l' AIS (Association Internationale de Sociologie) a choisi comme thème du XII. Congrès Mondial: SOCIOLOGIE POUR UN SEUL MONDE - UNITE ET DIVERSITE. Il s'agissait avant tout de pourvoir la rencontre d'une idée centrale que soit suffisamment générale pur permettre diverses approches représentant autant de théories et de recherches sociologiques actuelles, et tout à la fois suffisamment spécifique pour orienter la discussion académique vers un champ d'étude identifiable, caractérisé à la fois par l'expansion et la diversification.

Nous souhaitons que les sociologues de toutes les écoles et traditions, venant de contextes sociaux et nationaux différents et souvent divergents, se sentent invités à participer aux vifs débats du Congrès, montrant ainsi leur commune préoccupation pour "l'état de la question" dans ce seul et unique monde qui nous revient en même temps que pour "l'art et la manière", l'idonéité de nos efforts pour maintenir notre discipline au jour de rapides transformations mondiales. Il n'y a pas de doute qu'en quatre ans à peine, depuis notre dernier Congrès mondial à Nouvelle Delhi, les changements mondiaux qui affectent toutes les sociétés et les secouent souvent terriblement, remettant même en question leur survie, se sont accélérés vertigineusement, au point qu'il est plus que temps de réunir la communauté internationale de sociologues. L'ambition de cette rencontre est, par-dessus tout, de favoriser la responsabilité et la collaboration dans les études des problèmes, de la nature et des phénomènes d'un monde en formation.

Nous admettons volontiers que le sujet général du Congrès a certaines résonances programmatiques, voire idéalistes, à la limite. Cependant, il ne s'agit pas tant de nous centrer sur un seul monde en consonnance que sur la richesse contradictoire qui permet à ce "monde" d'exister - comme un tout avec à la fois ses multiples facettes. Les sociologues, même ceux qui ne renoncent pas à l'utopie, sont suffisamment réalistes pour ne pas croire à une société mondiale déjà établie. Cependant, de profondes analyses et une touche d'imagination sociologique sont - plus que jamais - nécessaires pour envisager l'avènement d'un nouvel âge et la naissance d'une société mondiale qui dépasse les limites conventionnelles, en particulier celles entre les nations, et rompt, de toute évidence, les murs de plus en plus de sociétés fermées jusqu'à présent. Il n'est pas étonnant que devant ce défi lancé à de plus amples études, nous ne puissions espérer une grande théorie mondiale. C'est plutôt à travers la confrontation des différentes façons de traiter le sujet que nous pourrions nous en faire une idée et favoriser la recherche créative sur ce seul monde où nous vivons et les maintes versions où se déroule son existence unique. Que l'on préfère continuer à mettre en évidence la diversité, voire la division de l'humanité et à souligner l'indigénisation, ou que l'on tende à assumer que l'internationalisation, voire la mondialisation sont en voie de devenir la tendance dominante, ou que l'on opte pour un point de vue plus universaliste ou que l'on considère plus adéquates des conceptions pluralistes, nul doute n'est permis sur le défi de la complexité et la diversité du sujet en question - souhaite-t-on seulement y renoncer? Heureusement la nouvelle compréhension cosmopolite des mouvements profonds de notre planète en mouvement, notre demeure commune, éliminera le danger de localisme qui se manifeste dans certaines parties du monde.

Le programme scientifique du Congrès offre en somme suffisamment de matière à réflexion sur le sujet central et les questions qui en découlent. C'est l'occasion d'un vaste intérêt international et de la prise en considération de toutes les contributions intéressantes. Selon une bonne tradition, le programme se compose de quatre parties:

1. Deux Séances Plénières: La Séance Présidentielle d'Ouverture, lundi matin, et la Séance de Clôture, vendredi après-midi, les deux étant plus que des cérémonies puisqu'au contraire elles offriront les messages d'ouverture et les évaluations finales d'éminents sociologues que traiteront le sujet général du Congrès dans une perspective mondiale.
2. Six Symposia, de quatre séances chacun, le matin, de mardi à vendredi, et dont l'objet est d'examiner en profondeur les différents aspects et dimensions du sujet du Congrès.
3. Neuf séances ordinaires de chacun des 42 Comités de Recherche et des 8 Groupes de Travail, toutes les après-midi de la semaine du Congrès, en plus de séances communes avec d'autres groupes constitués, le soir, dont le programme est fixé par ces Comités Permanents de l' AIS en fonction de leurs intérêts spécifiques mais qui, heureusement, font souvent clairement référence au sujet général du Congrès.
4. Les Groupes Thématiques, Séances Ad Hoc et Autres Groupes Spéciaux (SSO), organisés pour promouvoir la collaboration entre spécialistes au-delà des activités de groupes ou comités déjà bien constitués et, surtout, pour reconnaître les organisations de spécialistes dont les intérêts coïncident avec ceux de l' AIS.

Toutes les séances son ouvertes à tous les participants inscrits au Congrès. Les personnes-clé et les nouveaux venus représentant la vaste gamme de points de vue théoriques et doctrinaux et l'ampleur des recherches de sociologie dans tant de domaines, sont également invités à cette discussion universelle sur des questions de brûlante actualité dans un monde qui transforme profondément les conditions de notre existence: de nos vies, de notre travail, voire de notre façon de penser.

Une aventure et un défi intellectuel vous attendent. Lancez-vous dans la longue journée espagnole et passez une semaine avec vos amis et collègues.
