Welcome

Alberto Martinelli, President International Sociological Association

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

My warmest welcome to the XVth World Congress of Sociology!

This is the first ISA congress of the new century and we have chosen a forward-looking theme, the basic question we ask ourselves as sociologists to-day: what theoretical and methodological tools do we have in order to describe, interpret, explain and predict the social world and the condition of human society in the age of globalization.

The social world at the beginning of the XXI century is increasingly one world, but that at the same time it remains fragmented, conflict ridden, hierarchical and unequal; it is at the same time a global society and a divided world with unprecedeted hopes of greater justice and greater well being for all, and unprecedented threats of nuclear war and ecological death.

As concerned social scientists, we are, first of all, committed to address the key social questions of the present, because as Bauman says "asking the right questions makes all the difference between fate and destination, drifting and travelling". As researchers and teachers, we are also committed to provide scientifically sound interpretations and analyses. And, as a truly international association, the ISA, alongside other epistemic communities, can contribute to develop the values and the institutions of democratic global governance.

In the extremely rich program of the Congress- in the many presidential sessions, plenary sessions, thematic symposia, focused sessions of the research committees, ad-hoc sessions, guest sessions, and, for the first time, sessions of the language communities and author-meets-the-readers sessions- we will make a collective effort for discussing the ambivalent legacies of our sociological heritage, assessing the strengths and weaknesses of major paradigms, theoretical approaches and research results, and comparing the intellectual traditions of different sociological communities.

We will look at the rising challenges, both those inherited from the XX century and the new ones we can foresee in the near future, and at the various ways in which they will be enhanced or reversed, controlled and redefined, with a direct, substantive focus on social issues. We will reflect on the condition of human society, on the web of social relations in an increasingly interconnected world, on the growing variety of historical traditions, cultural backgrounds, and linguistic styles, and on the many ways sociological thinking has approached the key processes of the contemporary global world and conceptualized world society. We will share our experiences in teaching and research and we will ask ourselves what are the 'uses of sociology'.

The ISA Congress takes place for the first time in Australia, in the geographical South of the world, in the Pacific area, close to South-East Asia, one of the fastest changing multicultural regions of the world. The choice of this location symbolically underlines the truly international character of ISA, its quest for universality together with its respect for specific identities and cultures, and is coherent with our vision of the world where both unity and diversity are pursued and enhanced.

The International Sociological Association and the Local Organizing Committee have done their best. Now it is up to all of us to create a great intellectual event.

I am persuaded that the ISA Congress in Brisbane will be recorded in our intellectual history as the one where the questions of the social world as a global entity were debated in an open, thorough and fruitful way and where the role of sociology as perceptive, useful and polycentric knowledge was significantly advanced.

Have a meaningful experience in Brisbane!

Bienvenue

Alberto Martinelli, Président de l'Association internationale de sociologie

Chers amis et collègues,

Je suis ravi de vous souhaiter la bienvenue au XVème Congrès mondial de sociologie !

C'est le premier congrès de l'AIS du nouveau siècle et nous avons choisi un thème tourné vers l'avenir, la question fondamentale que nous nous posons aujourd'hui en tant que sociologues : de quels outils théoriques et méthodologiques disposons-nous pour décrire, interpréter, expliquer et prédire le monde social et la condition de la société humaine à l'heure de la mondialisation ?

Le monde social, au début de ce XXIème siècle, est un monde de plus en plus un, mais en même temps, il reste fragmenté, ravagé par les conflits, hiérarchique et inégal ; c'est à la fois une société mondiale et un monde divisé présentant d'une part des espoirs sans précédent d'une plus grande justice et d'un plus grand bien-être pour tous, et d'autre part, des menaces sans précédent de guerre nucléaire et de mort écologique. En tant que spécialistes des sciences humaines préoccupés, nous sommes tenus tout d'abord d'aborder les questions sociales fondamentales du présent, parce que, comme l'a dit Bauman, « poser les bonnes questions fait toute la différence entre le destin et la destination, les vagabondages et les voyages. » En tant que chercheurs et enseignants, nous sommes également tenus de fournir des interprétations et des analyses rigoureusement scientifiques. Et, en tant qu'association véritablement internationale, l'AIS peut contribuer, avec d'autres collectivités épistémiques, au développement des valeurs et des institutions d'un mode de gouvernement mondial démocratique.

Comme prévu au programme extrêmement riche de ce Congrès – au cours des nombreuses séances présidentielles, séances plénaires, symposiums thématiques, séances ciblées des comités de recherche, et, pour la première fois, séances de collectivités linguistiques et séances de rencontre entre auteur et lecteurs – nous ferons un effort collectif pour étudier les effets ambivalents de notre héritage sociologique, évaluer les forces et les faiblesses des grands paradigmes, des approches théoriques et des résultats de la recherche, et comparer les traditions intellectuelles de différentes collectivités sociologiques.

Nous examinerons les défis à relever, tant ceux du XXème siècle que les nouveaux qui s'annoncent dans un avenir proche, et les différents moyens de les améliorer ou de les inverser, de les maîtriser et de les redéfinir, en nous focalisant de manière directe et concrète sur les problèmes sociaux. Nous réfléchirons sur la condition de la société humaine, sur le tissu des relations sociales dans un monde de plus en plus interconnecté, sur la variété croissante des traditions historiques, des antécédents culturels et des styles linguistiques, ainsi que sur les nombreuses façons dont la pensée sociologique a abordé les processus fondamentaux du monde global contemporain et conceptualisé la société mondiale. Nous partagerons notre expérience de l'enseignement et de la recherche et nous nous demanderons quelles sont les « utilisations de la sociologie ».

Le Congrès de l'AIS se tient pour la première fois en Australie, dans le sud géographique du monde, dans la zone du Pacifique, proche du sud-est asiatique, l'une des régions multiculturelles à l'évolution la plus rapide. Le choix de ce lieu symbolise le caractère véritablement international de l'AIS, sa recherche de l'universalité ainsi que son respect des identités et des cultures spécifiques, et cadre bien avec notre vision d'un monde qui recherche et met en valeur tant l'unité que la diversité.

L'Association internationale de sociologie et le Comité d'organisation local ont fait tout leur possible. Maintenant c'est à nous tous qu'il appartient de créer une grande manifestation intellectuelle.

Je suis persuadé que le Congrès de l'AIS à Brisbane figurera dans nos annales intellectuelles comme celui qui se pencha sur les questions du monde social en tant qu'entité globale d'une manière ouverte, complète et fructueuse et qui fit progresser sensiblement le rôle de la sociologie en tant que connaissance perceptive, utile et polycentrique.

Je vous souhaite une expérience intéressante à Brisbane!

Professor Alberto Martinelli

President of the ISA

Bienvenidos

Alberto Martinelli, Presidente de la Asociación Sociológica Internacional

Estimados Amigos y Colegas,

¡Les doy la más cordial bienvenida al XV Congreso Mundial de Sociología!

Este es el primer congreso de la ISA del nuevo siglo y hemos seleccionado un tema que mira hacia adelante, la pregunta básica que nos hacemos como sociólogos hoy en día: cuáles son las herramientas teóricas y metodológicas que tenemos para describir, interpretar, explicar y predecir el mundo social y la situación de la sociedad humana en la era de la globalización.

El mundo social, al comenzar el siglo XXI, es cada vez más, un solo mundo, pero que, al mismo tiempo, permanece fragmentado, dirigido por conflictos, jerárquico y desigual; es, al mismo tiempo, una sociedad global y un mundo dividido con esperanzas sin precedente, de mayor justicia y mejor situación para todos, y amenazas sin precedente, de guerra nuclear y muerte ecológica.

Como científicos sociales preocupados, estamos, primero que nada, comprometidos en formular las preguntas sociales claves acerca del presente, porque, como dice Bauman "el hacer las preguntas correctas es muy importante para establecer la diferencia entre destino y rumbo, entre dejarse llevar o viajar". Como investigadores y maestros, también estamos comprometidos en proporcionar interpretaciones y análisis científicamente sólidas. Asimismo, como una verdadera asociación internacional, la ISA, junto con otras comunidades epistémicas, puede contribuir a desarrollar los valores y las instituciones de gobernación democrática global.

En el extremadamente amplio programa del Congreso- en las numerosas sesiones presidenciales, sesiones plenarias, simposios temáticos, sesiones especializadas de los comités de investigación, sesiones ad-hoc, sesiones de huéspedes, y, por primera vez, sesiones de las comunidades de idiomas y la sesiones de autor-conoce-al-lector, haremos un esfuerzo colectivo por hablar de la herencia ambivalente de nuestro patrimonio sociológico, revisando las bondades y las deficiencias de importantes paradigmas, planteamientos teóricos y resultados de la investigación, y comparando las tradiciones intelectuales de diferentes comunidades sociológicas.

Analizaremos los crecientes retos, tanto aquellos heredados del siglo XX, como los nuevos que podemos prever para el futuro cercano, y las varias maneras en que se acrecentarán o invertirán, controlarán y redefinirán, con un enfoque directo y substantivo en los temas sociales. Reflexionaremos sobre la condición de la sociedad humana, sobre la red de relaciones sociales en un mundo interconectado cada vez más, sobre la creciente variedad de tradiciones históricas, antecedentes culturales, y estilos lingüísticos, y sobre las muchas formas en que el pensamiento sociológico ha abordado los procesos claves del mundo global contemporáneo y la sociedad mundial conceptualizada. Compartiremos nuestras experiencias en la docencia y la investigación y nos preguntaremos a nosotros mismos cuáles son los 'usos de la sociología'.

El Congreso de la ISA se lleva a cabo por primera vez en Australia, en el sur geográfico del mundo, en la zona Pacífica, cerca del sureste de Asia, una de las regiones multiculturales del mundo de más rápido cambio. La elección de este sitio, simbólicamente fundamenta el verdadero carácter internacional de la ISA, su lucha por la universalidad unida a su respeto por identidades y culturas específicas, y es coherente con nuestra visión del mundo, donde tanto la unidad como la diversidad se buscan y enaltecen.

La Asociación Sociológica Internacional y el Comité Local Organizador han hecho lo mejor posible. Ahora depende de todos nosotros el crear un gran evento intelectual.

Estoy convencido de que el Congreso de la ISA en Brisbane quedará grabado en nuestra historia intelectual como el evento en el que las preguntas del mundo social como una entidad global fueron debatidas de manera abierta, profunda y provechosa y donde el papel de la sociología como un conocimiento perceptivo, útil y policéntrico fue desarrollado significativamente.

¡Que tengan una experiencia muy significativa en Brisbane!

President of the ISA

Introduction to the Congress Program

By Piotr Sztompka, ISA Vice-President for Program

Dear Colleagues and Friends, Participants at the XVth World Congress of Sociology,

On the following pages of this fat book you will find a rich intellectual menu prepared for you by the Program Committee and the Research Council with tremendous help from the Local Organizing Committee. During the Congress week 2,603 papers will be presented in 781 sessions, covering all fields and subfields of sociology, and addressing a staggering number of problems and issues. We hope the menu will satisfy all tastes.

You will inevitably have to make choices, some of them difficult as the time framework cannot be stretched and lots of sessions run parallel, competing for your attention and attendance. To make your decisions a bit easier and better informed, I propose to reveal to you an architecture of the program, which as with all good architecture remains hidden and invisible behind the completed edifice.

Let us look first at the weekly and daily dynamics of Congress events. Monday and Saturday are more solemn days, with two Presidential Sessions of a truly plenary character, allowing everybody to meet literally under one roof. The most demanding Congress work is concentrated in four days, from Tuesday until Friday. On each of these days the schedule is the same. The morning hours from 9.00 to 12.00 are taken by the semi-plenary Thematic Symposia which attempt to reflect on the various aspects of the main theme of the Congress. There are five symposia of this sort running parallel in three consecutive parts each, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Then on Friday the scope of issues to be discussed is extended by giving you the choice of an additional seven themes at parallel Special Sessions. The same semi-plenary level and the privileged location in the morning slot is given to the Focused Integrative Sessions of the Research Committees, bringing together several of them for reflection on issues relevant to the Congress theme. Then the afternoons from 13.30 until 17.30 are dominated by the sessions of all fifty-some Research Committees. In this slot you will also find the Sessions of National Associations, where the topics particularly significant for their local sociological communities will be taken up, as well as the Sessions of Language Communities providing an opportunity for exchanges by sociologists often divided by geographical or political borders but united by speaking in one of the major world languages. In the afternoon you will also find the Guest Sessions convened by our invitation by other friendly, collaborating associations or organizations. In the evening hours, from 20.00-21.45 there are the more informal encounters with selected eminent sociologists labelled as Author-Meets-the-Readers sessions, and parallel with these a number of Ad-Hoc Sessions, recognizing groups doing important research on dispersed topics, but not directly linked with the main Congress theme.

Already reading this timetable you will easily discover the central assumption that the Program Committee took from the beginning of its work: the strong emphasis on diversity, but not the haphazard collection of papers, rather what I prefer to call "focused diversity". Indeed, I suppose the diversity is greater than at any Congress before. Just look at fourteen formats in which the sessions are arranged, some of them quite innovative, like Integrative Sessions of Research Committees, Author-Meets-the-Readers, Sessions of Language Communities, Guest Sessions etc.. And there is the constant effort to structure and discipline this richness of contributions by the substantial focus on the "ambivalent legacies and rising challenges of world sociology in the XXI century", our main Congress theme. The central principle of diversity is also reflected in the balanced representation of gender, languages, continental, regional and national traditions of doing sociology, theoretical and methodological orientations, and varied styles of discourse. We tried to observe balance as much as practically feasible in this not yet perfect social world in which we live.

The Program Committee assumed from the beginning that the calling of ISA is not only to provide the international integrative forum, but to set the international standards of outstanding research. We trust that in most cases high criteria of selection were observed by the conveners, and as a result you will have exemplars of the best that sociology has to offer. The emphasis on professional and academic excellence which ISA has the duty to recognize and reward is also visible in the honoring of five eminent colleagues at Author-Meets-the-Readers sessions, and granting a prize – generously sponsored by Mattei Dogan's foundation – for a distinguished career in sociology.

The whole point of getting together at the World Congress is to discuss, debate, even quarrel about sociological problems and solutions. The papers, if only good enough will be printed anyway, and will be available for reading. But nothing will make up for personal encounters. Hence, our appeal to you: don't just listen to what the paper-givers say. Talk yourself, speak your mind, present and argue your point of view, criticize or support others. We trust that the conveners provided ample time for discussions. It is in such discussions that serendipity occurs, new vistas are opened, new ideas are born.

So much for our intentions. Whether this Congress will truly become not only the first but the best in the XXI century is now up to you; to each of you individually and to all of us collectively. Let's make the most of this opportunity. Have an inspiring time at the Brisbane World Congress.

ISA Vice-President for Program

Introduction au Programme du Congrès Mondial de Sociologie

par Piotr Sztompka, Vice-Président du Programme

Chers collègues et amis, participants au XV ème Congrès Mondial de Sociologie,

Dans les pages suivantes de ce livre épais, vous trouverez un riche menu intellectuel préparé pour vous par le Comité du Programme et par le Conseil de Recherche avec la grande aide du Comité Local Organisateur. Pendant la semaine du Congrès 2603 présentations dans 781 sessions seront exposées couvrant tous les champs et sous-champs de la sociologie et traitant un énorme nombre de problèmes et d'idées. Nous espérons que le menu satisfera tous les goûts.

Inévitablement vous devrez choisir entre plusieurs options, certaines d'entre elles difficiles pour raison de temps et parce que beaucoup de sessions se célèbrent en parallèle, attirant votre attention et présence. A fin de rendre un peu plus facile vos décisions et pour que vous soyez mieux informés, je vous propose de vous révéler une architecture du programme, qui comme tout bonne architecture reste cachée et invisible derrière le bâtiment terminé.

D'abord nous allons voir la dynamique hebdomadaire et quotidienne des actes du Congrès. Lundi et samedi sont les jours les plus solennels où les deux Sessions Présidentielles ont un véritable caractère plénier qui permettent à tout le monde de se réunir littéralement sous un même toit. Les activités les plus exigeantes du Congrès sont concentrées sur quatre jours, du mardi au vendredi. Le schéma de ces jours est le même. Le matin de 9:00 à 12:00 heures auront lieu les Symposiums thématiques, de caractère plénier, qui essaient de réfléchir sur divers aspects du thème principal du Congrès. Il y a cinq Symposiums de cette sorte qui se célèbrent parallèlement et chacun en trois parties consécutives mardi, mercredi et jeudi. Après, vendredi, l'envergure des sujets à débattre s'amplifie et offre la possibilité de choisir entre sept thèmes supplémentaires dans les Special Sessions parallèles. Le matin se célébreront aussi au même niveau semi-plénier, Focused Integrative Sessions de plusieurs Comités de Recherche qui traitement des sujets relevant pour le thème principal du Congrès. L'après-midi, de 13:30 à 17:30, est occupé par les sessions des Comités de Recherche. Dans cet horaire vous trouverez en plus les sessions des Associations Nationales où les thèmes sont particulièrement significatifs pour leurs communautés sociologiques locales, également les sessions des Communautés Linguistiques qui offrent une opportunité pour l'échange entre sociologues normalement séparés par les divisions géographiques ou politiques, mais unis par une langue d'importance mondiale. L'après-midi seront organisées aussi Guest Sessions convoquées par d'autres associations ou organisations amies et collaboratrices invitées par nous. Le soir, de 20:00 à 21:45, auront lieu les rencontres plus informelles avec de prestigieux sociologues, les sessions Author-Meets-the-Readers, et parallèlement plusieurs sessions Ad-Hoc de groupes qui sont en train de faire une recherche importante sur divers sujets qui ne sont pas directement en rapport avec le thème principal du Congrès.

Une fois que vous aurez lu le menu, vous découvrirez facilement l'objectif principal que le Comité du Programme a assumé depuis de début de son travail: une forte emphase sur la diversité, pas comme une collection fortuite de présentations mais ce que je préfère appeler Adiversité orientée. Sincèrement, je crois que la diversité est plus grande que dans n'importe quel autre congrès. Remarquez les quatorze formats différents de sessions, certains d'entre eux assez innovateurs, comme les sessions intégratives de Comités de Recherche, Author-Meets-the-Readers, les sessions des Communautés Linguistiques, etc. De plus, l'effort constant pour structurer et discipliner cette richesse des contributions orientées substantiellement vers Ades legs ambiguës et de nouveaux défis pour la sociologie mondiale au XXI ème siècle, le thème principale de notre Congrès, est visible. Le principe central de la diversité est aussi reflété dans la représentation équilibrée de genre, langue, traditions continentales, régionales et nationales d'exercer la sociologie, d'orientations théoriques et méthodologiques, tout comme de styles différents de discours. Nous avons essayé de respecter l'équilibre de la meilleure façon possible dans ce monde social, encore imparfait, où nous vivons.

Le Comité du Programme a assumé depuis le début que le message de l'AIS est non seulement organiser un forum international intégratif, mais aussi établir les standards internationaux pour une recherche d'excellence. Nous sommes sûrs que dans la majorité des cas les organisateurs des sessions ont tenu compte des bons critères de sélections et comme résultat vous aurez des exemples du meilleur que peut offrir la sociologie. L'emphase sur d'excellence professionnelle et académique que l'AIS doit détacher et récompenser est aussi visible dans la reconnaissance de cinq imminents collègues dans les sessions Author-Meets-the-Reader et dans la concession d'un prix parrainé par la Fondation Mattei Dogan pour une carrière distinguée en sociologie.

Le principal motif pour se réunir dans le Congrès mondial c'est de discuter, débattre, et même se disputer, sur des problèmes et des solutions sociologiques. Si les présentations sont assez bonnes, elles seront publiées et seront disponibles pour la lecture. Mais, il n'y a rien de mieux que les rencontres personnelles. Pour cela, nous vous faisons cet appel: n'écoutez pas seulement ce que diront les conférenciers. Parlez vous mêmes, exprimez vos idées, présentez et argumentez vos points de vue, critiquez ou appuyez les autres. Nous espérons que les coordinateurs des sessions réservent beaucoup de temps pour la discussion. C'est pendant ce type de discussions qu'apparaissent les découvertes les plus inattendues, s'ouvrent de nouveaux horizons, naissent de nouvelles idées.

Voici nos intentions. Si vraiment ce Congrès va être non seulement le premier mais aussi le meilleur du XXI ème siècle, cela dépend maintenant de vous; de chacun individuellement et de tous collectivement. Vivez au maximum cette opportunité. Passez un séjour profitable à Brisbane!

Introducción al Programa del Congreso

Por Piotr Sztompka, ISA Vice-Presidente de Programa

Estimados Colegas y Amigos, Participantes en el XV Congreso Mundial de Sociología,

En las siguientes páginas de este gordo libro, encontrarán un rico menu intelectual preparado para usted por el Comité de Programa y el Consejo de Investigación, con tremenda ayuda del Comité Local Organizador. Durante la semana del Congreso, se presentarán 2,603 trabajos en 781 sesiones, cubriendo todos los campos y subcampos de la sociología, abordando un asombroso número de problemas y temas. Esperamos que el menu satisfaga todos los gustos.

Inevitablemente tendrá que elegir, algunas veces será difícil ya que el tiempo no puede extenderse y muchas sesiones se dan de manera paralela, compitiendo por su atención y asistencia. Para que sus decisiones sean un poco más fáciles y mejor informadas, le propongo revelarle la arquitectura del programa, la cual, como toda buena arquitectura, permanece oculta e invisible detrás del edificio terminado.

Veamos primero las dinámicas semanales y diarias de los eventos del Congreso. El lunes y sábado son días más solemnes, con dos Sesiones Presidenciales de verdadero carácter plenario, permitiendo a todos encontrarse literalmente bajo un mismo techo. El trabajo más exigente del Congreso está concentrado en cuatro días, desde el martes hasta el viernes. En cada uno de estos días, el horario es el mismo. Las horas de la mañana van de 9.00 a 12.00 y son dedicadas al Simposio Temático semi-plenario que trata de reflejarse en los diversos aspectos del tema principal del Congreso. Hay cinco simposios de este tipo, cada uno presentándose paralelamente en tres partes consecutivas, el martes, miércoles y jueves. Después, el viernes se extiende la gama de temas a discutir, dándole la opción de elegir siete temas adicionales en Sesiones Especiales paralelas. El mismo nivel semi-plenario y la ubicación privilegiada en el grupo de la mañana se le da a las Sesiones Integrales Especializadas de los Comités de Investigación, reuniendo a varios para reflexionar sobre asuntos que tengan relevancia al tema del Congreso. Luego, las tardes de 13.30 a 17.30 están dominadas por las sesiones de todos los cincuenta y tantos Comités de Investigación. En este grupo también encontrará las Sesiones de las Asociaciones Nacionales, donde se hablará sobre tópicos que son particularmente significativos para sus comunidades sociológicas, así como las Sesiones de las Comunidades de Idiomas, dando oportunidad para intercambios por parte de sociólogos que a menudo se encuentran divididos por fronteras políticas o geográficas, pero unidos al hablar en uno de los principales idiomas del mundo. En la tarde también encontrará las Sesiones de Invitados convocadas por nuestra invitación de otras asociaciones u organizaciones colaboradoras amigas. Por las noches, de 20.00-21.45 se llevan a cabo las reuniones más informales con eminentes sociólogos selectos, denominadas Sesiones de Autor-Conoce-al-Lector, y de manera paralela a éstas, hay un número de Sesiones Ad-Hoc, reconociendo a grupos que realizan investigación importante en diversos tópicos, pero no ligado directamente con el tema principal del Congreso.

Al leer este programa, usted descubrirá fácilmente la suposición central que el Comité de Programa tomó desde el principio de este trabajo: un fuerte énfasis en la diversidad, pero no la poco sistemática compilación de presentaciones, sino lo que yo prefiero llamar “diversidad enfocada”. Ciertamente, supongo que la diversidad es mayor que en cualquier otro Congreso anterior. Sólo observe los catorce formatos en que se arreglan las sesiones, algunos de ellos bastante innovadores, como las Sesiones Integrales de RCs, Autor-Conoce-al-Lector, Sesiones de Comunidades de Idiomas, Sesiones de Invitados, etc. Asimismo, existe el constante esfuerzo de estructurar y disciplinar esta riqueza de contribuciones mediante el enfoque substancial en la “herencia ambivalente y crecientes retos de la sociología mundial en el siglo XXI”, nuestro principal tema del Congreso. El principio central de diversidad también se refleja en la representación balanceada de género, idiomas, tradiciones continentales, regionales y nacionales de hacer sociología, orientaciones teóricas y metodológicas, y diversos estilos de discurso. Tratamos de mantener un equilibrio, tanto como fuera prácticamente posible, en este todavía no perfecto mundo social en que vivimos.

El Comité de Programa supuso desde el inicio que el llamado de la ISA es no sólo para proporcionar un forum integral internacional, sino para establecer los estándares internacionales de investigación sobresaliente. Confiamos en que, en la mayoría de los casos, los convocadores observaron un alto criterio de selección, y como resultado usted tendrá modelos de lo mejor que la sociología tiene que ofrecer. El énfasis en la excelencia profesional y académica que la ISA tiene la obligación de reconocer y premiar, también es visible al laurear a cinco eminentes colegas en las sesiones Autor-Conoce-al-Lector, otorgando un premio – generosamente patrocinado por la fundación Mattei Dogan – por una distinguida carrera en sociología.

El objetivo real de reunirse en el Congreso Mundial es para discutir, debatir, y hasta disputar, acerca de problemas sociológicos y soluciones. Las presentaciones, aunque sólo sea suficiente, se imprimirán de todas maneras y estarán disponibles para su lectura. Sin embargo, nada suplirá los encuentros personales. Por lo tanto, nuestro llamado a usted: no sólo escuche lo que el presentador diga. Hable usted, diga lo que piensa, presente y argumente sus puntos de vista, critique o apoye a otros. Confiamos en que los convocadores dieron amplio tiempo para discusiones. Es en esas discusiones cuando se da la ‘serendipity’, se abren nuevas perspectivas, nacen nuevas ideas.

Esas son nuestras intenciones. Ya sea que este Congreso de verdad se convierta no sólo en el primero sino en el mejor en el siglo XXI depende ya de usted; de cada uno de ustedes individualmente y de todos nosotros colectivamente. Aprovechemos al máximo esta oportunidad. ¡Que tengan momentos de gran inspiración en Brisbane!

Welcome to Australia – Jake M Najman

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to Australia for the XV World Congress of Sociology. This is the first time the international sociological community will have had the opportunity to meet their Australian colleagues in large numbers. Many Australian and New Zealand sociologists will be participating – please use this as an opportunity for establishing what we hope will be enduring professional and collaborative relationships.

Australians are friendly and hospitable. Take this opportunity to learn about our country and enjoy the facilities it offers. We believe we live in a magnificent country with an inexhaustible range of beaches, forests and many of the world's great locations.

If we can help make your stay more pleasant please let us know how. For our part we hope this will be the beginning of a continuing friendship with our country and its people.

Chair, Local Organizing Committee

Bienvenue en Australie – Jake M Najman

C'est avec grand plaisir que je vous souhaite la bienvenue en Australie pour le XVème Congrès mondial de sociologie. C'est la première fois que la communauté sociologique internationale aura l'occasion de rencontrer ses collègues australiens en grand nombre. De nombreux sociologues australiens et néo-zélandais participeront au Congrès – profitez de cette occasion pour établir des relations professionnelles et collaboratrices que nous espérons durables.

Les Australiens sont amicaux et hospitaliers. Profitez de cette occasion pour vous informer sur notre pays et apprécier les agréments qu'il vous propose. Nous aimons à croire que nous habitons un pays magnifique doté d'une variété inépuisable de plages, de forêts et de bon nombre des sites les plus spectaculaires du monde.

S'il y a quelque chose que nous pouvons faire pour rendre votre séjour plus agréable, n'hésitez pas à nous en parler. Pour notre part, nous espérons que le Congrès sera le début de rapports amicaux suivis avec notre pays et ses habitants.

Jake M. Najman

Président du Comité d'organisation local

Bienvenidos a Australia – Jake M Najman

Es un gran placer darles la bienvenida a Australia en el XV Congreso Mundial de Sociología. Ésta es la primera ocasión en que la comunidad sociológica internacional habrá tenido la oportunidad de reunirse con un gran número de sus colegas australianos. Muchos sociólogos australianos y neozelandeses estarán participando – por favor utilicen esto como una oportunidad para establecer lo que esperamos serán relaciones profesionales duraderas y de colaboración.

Los australianos son amigables y hospitalarios. Aprovechen esta oportunidad para aprender acerca de nuestro país y disfruten lo que éste les ofrece. Sabemos que vivimos en un país extraordinario con una inagotable serie de playas, bosques y muchos de los maravillosos sitios de este mundo.

Si en algo podemos ayudar a hacer su estancia más placentera, les rogamos nos lo hagan saber. Por nuestra parte, esperamos que éste sea el comienzo de una continua amistad con nuestro país y su gente.

Welcome from the TASA President

Dear Colleagues

Welcome | Bienvenue | la Bienvenida

On behalf of the TASA membership, I extend a warm welcome to all delegates, particularly those who have travelled far from many parts of the world to be with us, and hope you find the Congress an intellectually stimulating and socially rewarding event.

TASA is pleased to collaborate with the ISA in hosting the XV World Congress of Sociology. The World Congress is without doubt the most significant international event in the sociological calendar, with an impact that extends well beyond the boundaries of the discipline. The Congress provides a global springboard for raising the public profile of sociology and enhancing its contribution to public debate.

In many ways the World Congress provides an avenue for the nexus of ‘the global’ and ‘the local’; and so while in Australia, we trust you will take advantage of the opportunity to reflect on the global significance of developments in the Asia-Pacific region and become a little more familiar with Australian society and Australian sociology.

I extend immeasurable thanks to all those TASA and ISA members, particularly the Local Organising Committee and the ISA Executive, who have worked tirelessly and diligently to make the XV World Congress of Sociology an event to remember. It is now time to reflect on our discipline, take pride in our achievements and enjoy the gemeinschaft of sociology.

Dr John Germov
President, The Australian Sociological Association

Bienvenue de la part du Président de l' Association Australienne de Sociologie

Chers Collègues,

Au nom des membres de l' Association Australienne de Sociologie (TASA), je souhaite la bienvenue à tous les délégués, surtout à ceux qui viennent de loin, d'autres parties du monde, pour être avec nous. Nous espérons que le Congrès sera un événement intellectuellement stimulant et socialement fructifère.

TASA est ravi de collaborer avec l'Association International de Sociologie (AIS) dans la célébration du XV ème Congrès Mondial de Sociologie. Ce congrès est, sans aucun doute, l'événement international le plus remarquable du calendrier sociologique, avec une portée qui s'étend au-delà des bornes de la discipline. Le Congrès offre un tremplin pour éléver le profil public de la Sociologie et intensifier sa contribution au débat public.

C'est de plusieurs façons que le Congrès Mondial offre un chemin pour la rencontre entre "le local" et "le global"; donc nous confions que, pendant votre séjour en Australie, vous profiterez de l'occasion de réfléchir à la signification globale des développements dans la zone Asie-Pacifique autant plus que vous deviendrez un peu plus éclaircis sur la société australienne et la sociologie australienne.

Je voudrais bien exprimer mes remerciements infinis à tous les membres de l'TASA et de l'AIS, notamment au comité local organisateur et au comité exécutif de l'AIS, qui ont travaillé sans pause et avec une diligence extrême pour que le XV Congrès de Sociologie soit un événement inoubliable. Le moment est arrivé de réfléchir sur notre discipline, nous congratuler de nos accomplissements et de jouir du gemeinschaft de la sociologie

Président de l' Association Australienne de Sociologie

Bienvenida del Presidente de la Asociación Australiana de Sociología

Estimados Colegas,

En nombre de los miembros de la Asociación Australiana de Sociología, quisiera dar una calurosa bienvenida a todos los delegados, en particular, a aquellos que han hecho un largo viaje desde distintas partes del mundo para estar con nosotros. Esperamos que el Congreso sea un acontecimiento intelectualmente estimulante y socialmente fructífero.

La Asociación Australiana de Sociología (TASA) está encantada de colaborar con la Asociación Internacional de Sociología (AIS) en celebrar el XV Congreso Mundial de Sociología. El Congreso Mundial es, sin duda, el acontecimiento internacional más significativo en el calendario sociológico, con un impacto que va más allá de las fronteras de la disciplina. El Congreso ofrece un trampolín para elevar el perfil público de la sociología e intensificar su contribución al debate público.

En muchos aspectos el Congreso Mundial abre una avenida para el nexo de “lo global” y “lo local”; así que cuando estéis en Australia, confiamos en que aprovechéis la oportunidad para reflexionar sobre el significado global de los desarrollos en la región Asia-Pacífico y para llegar a conocer mejor la sociedad australiana y la sociología australiana.

Agradezco inmensamente a todos los miembros de la TASA y de la AIS, en particular al Comité Local Organizador y al Comité Ejecutivo de la AIS, quien ha trabajado sin descanso y diligentemente para hacer del XV Congreso Mundial de Sociología un acontecimiento inolvidable. Ahora es tiempo de reflexionar sobre nuestra disciplina, sentirse orgulloso de nuestros logros y disfrutar del gemeinschaft de la sociología.

Dr John Germov
President, The Australian Sociological Association

Introduction and Acknowledgements

The program for this Congress is an enormous undertaking. There are close to 2,700 papers distributed across 800 academic sessions and other events.

The complexity of the program reflects the complexity of the ISA itself. The bulk of sessions are sponsored by the Research Committees (RC01, RC02 etc.), Thematic Groups (TG) and Working Groups (WG). The Research Committees sponsor their own programs but also combine to sponsor Joint Sessions of the Research Committees (JS).

The Program Committee of the ISA organises the plenary sessions of the conference that occupy the Morning Program. It also sponsors the Guest Sessions (GS) of the Congress and the Authors Meet Readers (AR) sessions in the evening. In addition it sponsors groups who, in turn, organise the Ad Hoc sessions.

Other entities within the ISA run their own sessions. Language Communities (LC), National Associations (NA) and Regional Associations (RA). Furthermore the ISA itself sponsors the Presidential Sessions and has its own administrative meetings during the course of the Congress.

We have kept track of the Afternoon Program and other events through their sponsors. Each session code contains a reference to the sponsor as its first four characters. The relationship of sponsors to sessions is summarized in the diagram overleaf. The sessions of the Morning Program are coded by type of session, Thematic Symposia (TSY), Focused Sessions (FS) and Special Sessions (SS).

Pulling the program together from information supplied by session organisers and information supplied independently through The Meeting Planners has been an enormous task. It was, effectively, achieved between May 1 and June 11 a period of just 5 weeks. Many people worked long hours to make this happen. I want to sincerely thank the consultants at Electronic Productivity Solutions Pty Ltd who got us over the biggest hurdles and Melanie Yelland and other staff at The Meeting Planners who carried us through to the end. Final thanks to Anne and Geof who kept me sane and Nikki, Matilda and Polly who reminded me that other lives are possible after this Congress.

About TASA

TASA began its life in 1963 as the Sociological Association of Australia and New Zealand, incorporated in 1968 and in 1988 changed its name to TASA. TASA members include sociologists and social scientists consisting of academics, postgraduate and undergraduate students, public servants, consultants and social researchers. TASA is a vibrant and dynamic association that is particularly attuned to the interests of its membership. It holds annual conferences and produces a refereed journal, a newsletter, a membership directory, a web site and maintains an email list. It bestows several prestigious awards, including the Jean Martin Award for best PhD, the Best Paper in the Journal of Sociology Award and the occasional awards for Service to Australian Sociology. TASA has long been a 'collective member' of the ISA.

TASA Membership Benefits

TASA membership offers sociologists numerous ways to enhance their careers through professional activities, scholarly information exchange and networking opportunities. TASA membership includes the following benefits:

real Connection

Business and Sociology

QUT's Faculty of Business is proud to support the XVth ISA World Congress of Sociology, and extends a warm welcome to delegates from around the world.

Real World Sociology in Business

In this part of the world it is not unusual for the sociology of work and organisation to be found in Faculties of Business, Commerce and/or Economics. As one of the largest Faculties of Business in Australia our teaching, research and service encompass traditional business disciplines as well as:

- Organisational sociology
- Industrial relations
- Work and industry futures
- Organisational behaviour
- Women and IT (a rural connection program)
- Organisational effectiveness
- Leadership and change
- Occupational health and safety
- Equity and diversity

For more information visit www.bus.qut.edu.au

We hope you enjoy Brisbane and the congress at the Brisbane Convention Centre and our beautiful Gardens Point campus.
