CLINICAL SOCIOLOGY

THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF ISA RC46: CLINICAL SOCIOLOGY

DEAR RC46 MEMBERS,

GREETINGS FROM MANILA!

The past three months have greatly challenged and transformed our lives in ways we have never imagined before! Today is the 85th day of our lockdown in Manila and we spent the last two and a half months delivering our courses online, including thesis/dissertation defenses! Wrapping up the semester while organizing many webinars and zoom meetings has been quite stressful. And I am sure, your lives are not any different from mine. Thus, the delay in the release of our newsletter. For the next issue, please send us your stories/vignettes about how the covid-19 has affected you, your family, work and community life.

In the last newsletter, we announced the following nominees to the Executive Board: 1) Agnes Vande velde-Rougale (France), 2) Anna Pitta (Brazil) and 3) David du Toit (South Africa). I take responsibility for the delayed electronic voting that we announced to be in Mid-January. Please send me (eporio@ateneo.edu) your vote(s) to the three nominees by June 30, 2020. I will then hand this over to our three vice presidents as they are serving as our election committee. If you are interested in becoming a member of an RC46 committee in the future, please send me an email message.

This issue contains the contributions submitted by our officers and members. I would like to thank them personally for writing despite their extremely busy schedules, especially during this difficult time of the covid-19 pandemic. I hope you are all safe and secure in your home and following quarantine protocols. Due to the pandemic, our RC 46 Clinical Sociology sessions at ISA Forum in Porto Alegre, Brazil in July 2020, Tina Uys. Please take note of the relevant deadlines and the panel sessions to be held at the forum.

In this issue Fernando de Yzaguirre, introduces “Sociological Dialogues”, the university extension project by the University of Caldas (Colombia) which features a two-day series of roundtable discussions on the methodological and conceptual contributions of the sociological perspective. Agnès Vandeveldde-Rougale announces the postponement of the International Symposium on Contemporary

Clinical Sociology

Subjectivations in a Complex World in Paris until June 2021. She also introduces upcoming publications in clinical sociology: Vincent de Gaulejac's latest book on an attack linked to religious extremism and Nouvelle Revue de Psychosociologie, a publication on the subjective hold of organizations, with a number of contributions from clinical sociologists. She also calls for an open access database for clinical sociologists to be utilized especially during this time of quarantine.

We also have a few updates from our members. Puspa Melati Wan has provided information about her latest publications and presentations in various conferences and Johanna O. Zulueta reports on her new affiliation with the Department of Global Diversity Studies at Toyo University.

RC 46 clinical sociologists/practitioners -- more power to you and your dreams, especially in these challenging times! Stay safe and secure!

Crossed views: launch of Visio-Exchange groups

BY: Agnès Vandeveldel-Rougale and Pascal Fugier

Faced with the test of Covid-19 and containment, the need to meet and share our experiences can be intense. In this context, several clinicians, from 4 distinct associations (RISC, ARIP, CIRFIP and TRANSITION), wished to build and offer a system of exchange and reflection in which we invite you to participate.

It is a question of organizing small groups animated by members of the four associations, allowing to evoke our experiences, to reflect together on the psychic, mental, family and social consequences of the current situation.

Members of the various associations volunteered to lead these groups: René BADACHE (RISC), Catherine BESSE (RISC), Christophe BITTOLO (Transition), Joëlle BORDET (CIRFIP), Catherine DAVID (ARIP), Vincent de GAULEJAC (RISC), Annie-Charlotte GIUST-OLLIVIER (CIRFIP), Giovanni GUERRA (Rome, Italy, President of ARIP), Fabienne HANIQUE (RISC), Christian MICHELOT (CIRFIP), Florence OUALID (CIRFIP), Lise POIRIER-COURBET (RISC) and André SIROTA (CIRFIP).

Four colleagues (Catherine Besse, Catherine David, Annie-Charlotte Giust-Ollivier and Florence Oualid) coordinate the reception of registrations. They will distribute the interested persons, according to the chosen timetables.

“Sociological Dialogues” A University Extension Project of the University of Caldas (Colombia)

BY: Fernando de Yzaquirre

The university extension project “Sociological Dialogues”, of the Sociology degree at the University of Caldas (Colombia), organizes a new round table on Friday, March 13, 2020 under the title “Theory and method of clinical sociology: An epistemological perspective for the action from the social sciences”.

The day is divided into two parts. The first part will focus on a discussion about the conceptual and methodological contributions of this perspective. In the second part, a practical workshop with forum theater will be held (whose origin is the theater of the oppressed by Augusto Boal, based on the pedagogy of the oppressed of Paulo Freire) to address the issues raised by the participants of the day and exemplify how This sociological perspective of proximity, which is oriented to accompaniment and change, operates from micro to macro.

Postponement of the International Symposium on Contemporary Subjectivations in a Complex World, Upcoming publications and an Open Access Database for Clinical Sociologists

BY: Agnès Vandeveldde-Rougale

Social protests in Europe, especially in France against yet other neoliberal reforms weakening the social support system as well as threatening research and education as public goods, and the Coronavirus outbreak worldwide have impacted activities of clinical sociologists. We’ve had to postpone seminars and symposium – thus, the international symposium on contemporary subjectivations in a complex world has been postponed to next year – it should take place in Paris in June 2021 (<https://www.sociologie-clinique.org/france/colloque-juin-2020/>). Nevertheless, we are pleased to stress that the sharing of clinical sociologists work continues, with a number of recent publications, including : the publication of the latest book based on the seminar Life story and theoretical choices held in Paris University edited by Marie-Anne Dujarier and focusing on researchers researching work (Travailler sur le travail <https://www.editions-harmattan.fr/index.asp?navig=catalogue&obj=livre&no=65898>); Vincent de Gaulejac's latest book (Dénouer les nœuds sociopsychiques. Quand le passé agit en nous - https://www.odilejacob.fr/catalogue/psychologie/psychologie-generale/denouer-les-noeuds-sociopsychiques_9782738151414.php); the comic-book Promenade de la mémoire on an attack linked to religious extremism (<http://desrondsanslo.blogspot.com/2020/03/promenade-de-la-memoire-photos.html>), which takes into account narratives gathered by our colleague Isabelle Seret ; a book on clinical practices in social work (Pratiques d'orientation clinique en travail social, edited by Sébastien Ponnou and Christophe Niewiadomski - <https://www.editions-harmattan.fr/index.asp?navig=catalogue&obj=livre&no=65896>).

We would also like to stress the upcoming publication by the Nouvelle Revue de Psychosociologie on the subjective hold of organizations (number 29), with a number of contributions from clinical sociologists.

On-line French-speaking visiogroups to discuss the Covid-19 pandemic have also been organized by the RISC, together with partners organizations promoting clinical approaches in human and social sciences (<https://www.sociologie-clinique.org/regards-croises-lancement-de-visio-groupes-dechanges/>).

Also, in a time when many of us can't meet, what about filling in a database where clinical sociologists worldwide could enter their latest articles. We could start with members of the RC46, using an open-access database: <https://lite.framacalc.org/9ebl-clinical-sociology-recent-papers> (I included an example with a joint article). Each of us can fill it in directly (no need of an administrator or supervisor), for all the others with the link to the database to see.
