

Report

The Y-th School of Young Researchers “ Sociology and Society: Social Inequality and Social Justice” has been held on the 16-th- 18-th of October in the Ural Federal University in the framework of the 5-th Russian Congress of sociologists (Yekaterinburg, Russia).

35 master-students and post-graduate students took part in the work of this school. The participants were from different parts of Russia : Yekaterinburg (15 students), from Moscow (8 students); from Tumen (2 students); from Nizhniy Novgorod (2 students); from Izhevsk (1 student); from Saint-Petersburg (2 students); from Volgograd (2 students); from Omsk (2 students).

The famous Russian sociologists such as U. Vishnevsky (Yekaterinburg), Zborovsky (Yekaterinburg), Zh. Toschenko (Moscow), B. Doctorov ( Russia – USA) have delivered lectures. Margaret Abraham, the current President of the International Sociological Association, has delivered a lecture” Problems of exclusion and partial inclusion”. She handed certificates to the young researchers.

Young researches have discussed the issues devoted to the actual problems of sociology of High School, of the history of Russian Sociology, of the issues of Sociology of Youth, to the Sociology of Common opinion, to the questions of Sociology in Public Space etc.

All participants of the school took an active part in the work of the Congress.

Organizer of the school: Elena Grunt, professor of the Department of Political Sciences and Sociology, Ural Federal University