Warranties

I warrant to the Proprietor and to SAGE that the Contribution is my original work, that I have the full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to convey the rights granted herein to the Proprietor and to submit the work for first publication in Sociopedia.isa and that it is not being considered for publication elsewhere and has not already been published elsewhere, either in printed or electronic form, that I have obtained and enclose all necessary permissions for the reproduction of any copyright works (including artistic works, e.g. illustrations, photographs, charts, maps, other visual material, etc.) contained in the Contribution and not owned by me and that I have acknowledged all the source(s), that the Contribution contains no violation of any existing copyright, other third party rights or any libellous or untrue statements and does not infringe any rights of others, and I agree to indemnify the Proprietor and SAGE against any claims in respect of the above warranties. SAGE for its benefit in accordance with the provisions of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 hereby asserts its right to the protection of the above warranties and indemnities.

Declaration of Conflicting Interests

I certify that:

1. All forms of financial support, including pharmaceutical company support, are acknowledged in the Contribution
2. Any commercial or financial involvements that might present an appearance of a conflict of interest related to the Contribution are disclosed in the covering letter accompanying the Contribution and all such potential conflicts of interest will be discussed with the Editor as to whether disclosure of this information with the published Contribution is to be made in Sociopedia.isa.
3. I have not signed an agreement with any sponsor of the research reported in the Contribution that prevents me from publishing both positive and negative results or that forbids me from publishing this research without the prior approval of the sponsor.

4. I have checked in the manuscript submission guidelines whether this Journal requires a Declaration of Conflicting Interests and complied with the requirements specified where such a policy exists.

It is not expected that the details of financial arrangements should be disclosed. If Sociopedia.isa does require a Declaration of Conflicting Interests and no conflicts of interest are declared, the following will be printed with your article: 'None Declared'.

Termination

The Proprietor and SAGE, together in their sole, absolute discretion, may determine that the Contribution should not be published in Sociopedia.isa. If in the rare circumstance the decision is made not to publish the Contribution after accepting it for publication, then all rights in the Contribution granted to the Proprietor shall revert to you and this Agreement shall be of no further force and effect, and neither you nor the Proprietor nor SAGE will have any obligation to the other with respect to the Contribution.

Counterparts; Facsimile

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts each of which shall be deemed the original, all of which together shall constitute one and the same Agreement. A faxed copy or other electronic copy shall be deemed as an original.

This transaction may be conducted by electronic means and the parties authorize that their electronic signatures act as their legal signatures of this Agreement. This Agreement will be considered signed by a party when his/her/its electronic signature is transmitted. Such signature shall be treated in all respects as having the same effect as an original handwritten signature. (You are not required to conduct this transaction by electronic means or use an electronic signature, but if you do so, then you hereby give your authorization pursuant to this paragraph.)

Modification; Entire Agreement; Severability

No amendment or modification of any provision of this Agreement shall be valid or binding unless made in writing and signed by all parties. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings and representations. The invalidity or unenforceability of any particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect the other provisions, and this Agreement shall be construed in all respects as if any invalid or unenforceable provision were omitted.

Governing Law; Arbitration

This Agreement shall be deemed to be a contract made in England and shall be construed and applied in all respects in accordance with English law and the parties submit and agree to the jurisdiction of the English courts.

If any difference shall arise between you and SAGE and the Proprietor touching the meaning of this Agreement or the rights and liabilities of the parties thereto, the same shall be referred to the arbitration of two persons (one to be named by each party) or their mutually agreed umpire, in accordance with the provision of the England Arbitration Act 1996 or any amending or substituted statute for the time being in force.

Your rights as author

- You may re-publish the whole or any part of the contribution in a book written, edited or compiled by you provided reference is made to first publication by SAGE. The contribution may not be made available earlier than 12 months after publication in Sociopedia.isa issue without permission from SAGE.
- You may make photocopies of the published contribution for your own teaching needs or to supply on an individual basis to research colleagues on a not-for-profit basis.

When posting or re-using the contribution, you should provide a link/URL from the contribution posted to Sociopedia.isa site where the contribution is published.

The Society and SAGE’s use of the work

Although you have retained the copyright in your contribution, you have granted the Society an exclusive licence to use it. This helps us to ensure adequate protection against infringement of copyright protected material through breach of copyright or piracy anywhere in the world. It also ensures that requests by third parties to reprint or reproduce a contribution, or part of it in any format, are handled efficiently in accordance with our general policy which encourages dissemination of knowledge inside the framework of copyright.

Where practicable, you will be informed of requests to re-use your contribution. This does not apply to blanket arrangements covering Sociopedia.isa as a whole or arrangements covering groups of journals such as arrangements made with the Copyright Licensing Agency in the UK, or Copyright Clearance Center in the USA. Please keep our mailing list up to date with your institutional or business address changes to help us to do this. Inadvertent failure to inform you will not constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

Your responsibilities as author: inclusion of other copyright material

SAGE is sympathetic to the needs of scholars to include other copyright material, and is happy to provide guidance on this. Responsibility for obtaining permission to use any other copyright material rests with you as the author of the Contribution.

If your Contribution includes material which is not your copyright, you are responsible for submitting with your manuscript the written permission from those who control copyright in that material to include it and reproduce it within your Contribution. In most cases this will be the publisher of the work. This permission needs to be for all media in all languages in perpetuity. You are responsible for the payment of any permission fees.

Fair Dealing information for your reference:

Fair Dealing provisions under UK copyright law and/or the Fair Use provisions under US law for use of material in review, and/or other International Copyright Laws allow for the limited use of third party copyright materials in particular circumstances, without the requirement to obtain permission as above.

The term 'fair dealing' is not defined in UK legislation itself but should be viewed from a qualitative as well as a quantitative perspective. There are no set rules which cover what is or is not fair dealing. For guidance:

- Fair dealing can only apply to material used for specific purposes including those of criticism and review and news reporting and incidental use.
- Permission should always be sought where reproduction could reasonably be construed as competing with the sale of the original source and/or where the amount of copying is substantial.
- Whether you are including material with permission, or on the basis that it falls under 'fair dealing' or 'fair use', you must include acknowledgement of the copyright holder and original publication of the material.

If you are in doubt, please ask for advice from SAGE or the editor.
