

Racialized Welfare Discourses

Call for Book Chapters

After the volume Racism in and for the welfare state, its editor Fabio Perocco is looking for contributors for a book on racialized welfare discourses, specifically authors who would cover Israel, Australia, Greece, the UK, Switzerland. The book aims to analyze the ideological-discursive dimension of welfare racism, namely speeches and discourses depicting migrants, asylum seekers, and people of color, as scroungers sponging off the welfare state.
