WEBINARS

New Webinar Series: Nature, Labour and the Struggle for an Eco-Social World

We are very pleased to announce that in association with the publication in late 2021 of the Palgrave Handbook of Environmental Labour Studies, edited by Nora Räthzel, Dimitris Stevis and David Uzzell, four webinars, drawing on examples from Africa, the Americas, Asia and Europe, address the question, ‘Is there a gap between labour and nature, or are workers and their communities engaging with nature to work towards environmental justice and a just transition?’ The webinars have been organised jointly by the authors and the Center for Environmental Justice at Colorado State University, the European Trade Union Institute (ETUI), the Global Labour University (GLU), the United Nations Research Institute for Social Development (UNRISD), and the University of São Paulo.
