

Call for Chapters in Edited Book
CORRUPTION AND DEVELOPMENT IN NIGERIA

Expected Year of Publication: 2021

Dear Colleagues/Professors/Scholars/Academics/Practitioners.

This is to inform you that we are currently calling for very good and strong chapters to be published in a very important book due to be published in the first quarter of 2021. The book is to be published under the title Corruption and Development in Nigeria. The book will be published by a University Press. This book will be cutting edge in a niche area and will be an authoritative and current reference material. Both empirical and theoretical chapters are welcomed. Interested contributors should please send abstracts and full papers as email attachments to yakanle@yahoo.com and davekpe1@yahoo.com. Chapter preparation format is Time New Romans 12 single line spacing. Abstract should be about 150 words and full chapter should be 5,000 and 7, 000 words. The deadline for submission of abstract and full chapters is 30th September, 2020. It is however noteworthy that review and acceptance will be on rolling and continuous basis. Once sufficient excellent chapters are received on proposed themes/topics (below), no more chapters will be received/accepted. Abstracts and chapters must include proposed title of chapters, name/s, functional email addresses and institutional affiliations of author/s. Abstracts and full chapters submissions are now open.

Background to The Book

This book on Corruption and Development in Nigeria is focused on intersectionalities and trajectories of Corruption and Development in Nigeria. The major contributions of the book will address issues of conceptualization, theorization, causations, contexts, consequences and pathways. The important questions of why, what and how of corruption and development in Nigeria will be answered. The perspective of this book will be glocal, critical, empirical and normative. This book will be relevant to academics, scholars, knowledge bases, policy and practice actors and stakeholders on relationship between corruption and development. This book will contribute to sustainable understanding of corruption and development. The book will be very critical, practical, polemic, theoretical and pragmatic. It will be national, continental and global across professional remits.

The language of communication and publication is English and Originality is key at not more than 15 percent Similarity Index.

Sociologists, Social Scientists, Globalization and Glocalization experts, Humanities and Area Studies scholars, Policy Experts, Law Enforcement Officials including investigators and prosecutor, Judges, Legal and Development Practitioners will find the book very useful.

Themes for Expected Chapters:

1. Introduction and definitions
 - a. Definitions, Typologies and Characterization of Corruption
 - b. Theorizing Corruption

- c. Measurement of Corruption
 - d. Corruption, Causes, Consequences and Solutions
 - e. Strategies for Perpetrating Corruption
2. Corruption and Development linkages: Context Analysis and Case Studies
- a. Gender and Corruption
 - b. Corruption, Politics, Elections, Democracy and Governance
 - c. Corruption and The Economy
 - d. Corruption and The Family
 - e. Corruption and Religion
 - f. Corruption and Education
 - g. Social Media and Corruption
 - h. Corruption and Investments
 - i. Corruption and Development Fatalities
3. The Anticorruption Institutions:
- a. The Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC)
 - b. The Code of Conduct Bureau (CCB)
 - c. The Independent Corrupt Practices and Other Related Offences Commission (ICPC)
 - d. Civil Society Organizations
4. Strategies for Fighting Corruption
- a. Corruption Prevention
 - b. Investigating and prosecuting corruption
 - c. Corruption and the Criminal Justice System
 - d. Corruption Scandals, Public Opinions and Media Trials
 - e. Asset Recovery: Tracing, Freezing, Confiscation and Management
 - f. International Treaties and Cooperation in the enforcement of corruption laws
 - g. Can the Battle against Corruption ever be won?
5. Sectorial Manifestations of Corruption
- a. Public sector Corruption
 - b. Corruption in the Private Sector
 - c. Corruption and Sports
 - d. Economic Fraud and Identity-related Crimes
 - e. Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing
6. Conclusion

Editors:

Olayinka Akanle (Ph.D). Department of Sociology, Faculty of The Social Sciences, University of Ibadan, Nigeria & Research Associate, Department of Sociology, Faculty of Humanities, University of Johannesburg, South Africa.

David Olom Nkpe. Department of Sociology, Faculty of The Social Sciences, University of Ibadan, Nigeria & Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC), Nigeria.