

INVITATION TO SUBMIT A BOOK PROPOSAL

Cambridge Scholars Publishing are inviting proposals for academic books and edited collections. We would be pleased if you would consider submitting a proposal.

2021 marks the 20th anniversary of our foundation in Cambridge, UK. Over that time, Cambridge Scholars Publishing have grown to be one of the world's leading scholarly book publishers, with a backlist of more than 8000 titles, and more than 700 academic books due to publish this year. Cambridge Scholars Publishing Limited is not affiliated to, or associated with, Cambridge University Press or the University of Cambridge.

Cambridge Scholars Publishing are committed to supporting long-form research dissemination in all our fields of academic and scholarly publishing, through the publication of monographs and edited collections. This is, and will remain, our core focus in the years ahead. We publish in all major fields of academic research and practice, including Humanities and Social Sciences, Physical Sciences, Life Sciences, and Health Sciences.

For 2021, we have launched a special project to encourage books on issues relating to Social Justice. You can read more about our approach to how academic publishing intersects with social justice issues in the No Shelf Required online magazine.

Cambridge Scholars Publishing aim to put our authors at the heart of everything we do. We bring that ambition into our publishing operations with our Author Promises:

1. Fast, fair, and friendly proposal review;
2. Publication in handsome hardback, as well as eBook formats, for our academic library customers;
3. Worldwide distribution to research and study centres across the globe, via our international network including Amazon, Ebsco/GOBI, ProQuest, and Ingram;
4. A book published with us is always in-stock, and always available for sale, thanks to our unique Print on Time global distribution system;
5. An escalating royalty payment—the more titles sold, the higher the royalty rate, from the first copy sold;
6. No charges for publication.

To submit a scholarly book proposal, please visit our website, where you can complete a Book Proposal Form, and find out more about us.
